Arabian Nights And Days:

Arabian Nights and Days Naguib Mahfouz, 2016-06-15 The Nobel Prize winning Egyptian writer Naguib Mahfouz refashions the classic tales of Scheherazade into a novel written in his own imaginative spellbinding style Here are genies and flying carpets Aladdin and Sinbad Ali Baba and many other familiar stories from the tradition of The One Thousand and One Nights made new by the magical pen of the acknowledged dean of Arabic letters who plumbs their depths for timeless truths

James Merrill, Postmodern Magus Evans Lansing Smith, 2008-09 One of the unique voices in our century James Merrill was known for his mastery of prosody his ability to write books that were not just collected poems but unified works in which each individual poem contributed to the whole and his astonishing evolution from the formalist lyric tradition that influenced his early work to the spiritual epics of his later career Merrill's accomplishments were recognized with a Pulitzer Prize in 1977 for Divine Comedies and a National Book Critics Circle Award in 1983 for The Changing Light at Sandover In this meticulously researched carefully argued work Evans Lansing Smith argues that the nekyia the circular Homeric narrative describing the descent into the underworld and reemergence in the same or similar place confers shape and significance upon the entirety of James Merrill's poetry Smith illustrates how pervasive this myth is in Merrill's work not just in The Changing Light at Sandover where it naturally serves as the central premise of the entire trilogy but in all of the poet's books before and after that central text By focusing on the details of versification and prosody Smith demonstrates the ingenious fusion of form and content that distinguishes Merrill as a poet Moving beyond purely literary interpretations of the poetry Smith illuminates the numerous allusions to music art theology philosophy religion and mythology found throughout Merrill's work

Ethical Living through Stories Wen-chin Ouyang, 2025-02-20 Literature has for thousands of years served as a space in which people have negotiated the ethics of daily life In the Islamic tradition the broad concept of adab spans ethical instruction and literary culture Literature classified as adab was intended to cultivate readers minds and characters Similarly the Chinese concept of wen represents the intellectual cultural and ethical foundations of society Adab and wen offer ways to navigate complex social environments with respect and empathy promoting harmony in multicultural societies Such concepts remain highly relevant and valuable in today s global world In this book Wen chin Ouyang shows how our experience of adab stories has the power to transform both our personal relationships and society She draws on classic Arabic stories from the famous Thousand and One Nights and compares them with tales from the canonical Chinese novels Three Kingdoms The Journey to the West and Water Margin The book demonstrates how these stories tell us about ourselves allowing us to define test and refine our ethics of living More than this they have the power to help us experience a profound contemplation of our lives on earth linking us to our shared humanity and showing us how to live meaningfully
