1891 1981 Jazz Age Chicago: Crucible of Modern America Joseph Gustaitis, 2022 When people imagine 1920s Chicago they usually and justifiably think of Al Capone speakeasies gang wars flappers and flivvers Yet this narrative overlooks the crucial role the Windy City played in the modernization of America The city's incredible ethnic variety and massive building boom gave it unparalleled creative space as design trends from Art Deco skyscrapers to streamlined household appliances reflected Chicago's unmistakable style The emergence of mass media in the 1920s helped make professional sports a national obsession even as Chicago radio stations were inventing the sitcom and the soap opera Join Joseph Gustaitis as he chases the beat of America's Jazz Age back to its jazz capital Page 4 of cover Archibald Motley Jr. and Racial Reinvention Phoebe Wolfskill, 2017-08-10 An essential African American artist of his era Archibald Motley Jr created paintings of black Chicago that aligned him with the revisionist aims of the New Negro Renaissance Yet Motley's approach to constructing a New Negro a dignified figure both accomplished and worthy of respect reflected the challenges faced by African American artists working on the project of racial reinvention and uplift Phoebe Wolfskill demonstrates how Motley's art embodied the tenuous nature of the Black Renaissance and the wide range of ideas that structured it Focusing on key works in Motley's oeuvre Wolfskill reveals the artist's complexity and the variety of influences that informed his work Motley's paintings suggest that the racist problematic image of the Old Negro was not a relic of the past but an influence that pervaded the Black Renaissance Exploring Motley in relation to works by notable black and non black contemporaries Wolfskill reinterprets Motley's oeuvre as part of a broad effort to define American cultural identity through race class gender religion and regional affiliation

The Harlem Renaissance and Transatlantic Modernism Denise Murrell, 2024-02-25 Beginning in the 1920s Upper Manhattan became the center of an explosion of art writing and ideas that has since become legendary But what we now know as the Harlem Renaissance the first movement of international modern art led by African Americans extended far beyond New York City This volume reexamines the Harlem Renaissance as part of a global flowering of Black creativity with roots in the New Negro theories and aesthetics of Alain Locke its founding philosopher as well as the writings of W E B Du Bois Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston Featuring artists such as Aaron Douglas Charles Henry Alston Augusta Savage and William H Johnson who synthesized the expressive figuration of the European avant garde with the aesthetics of African sculpture and folk art to render all aspects of African American city life this publication also includes works by lesser known contributors including Laura Wheeler Waring and Samuel Joseph Brown Jr who took a more classical approach to depicting Black subjects with dignity interiority and gravitas The works of New Negro artists active abroad are also examined in juxtaposition with those of their European and international African diasporan peers from Germaine Casse and Ronald Moody to Henri Matisse Edvard Munch and Pablo Picasso This reframing of a celebrated cultural phenomenon shows how the flow of ideas through Black artistic communities on both sides of the Atlantic contributed to international conversations around art race and identity while helping to define our notion of modernism

Roots of the Black Chicago Renaissance Richard A. Courage, Christopher Robert Reed, 2020-05-29 The Black Chicago Renaissance emerged from a foundational stage that stretched from the 1893 World's Columbian Exposition to the start of the Great Depression During this time African American innovators working across the landscape of the arts set the stage for an intellectual flowering that redefined black cultural life Richard A Courage and Christopher Robert Reed have brought together essays that explore the intersections in the backgrounds education professional affiliations and public lives and achievements of black writers journalists visual artists dance instructors and other creators working in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Organized chronologically the chapters unearth transformative forces that supported the emergence of individuals and social networks dedicated to work in arts and letters The result is an illuminating scholarly collaboration that remaps African American intellectual and cultural geography and reframes the concept of urban black renaissance Contributors Richard A Courage Mary Jo Deegan Brenda Ellis Fredericks James C Hall Bonnie Claudia Harrison Darlene Clark Hine John McCluskey
