Architecture and the Crisis of Modern Science Alberto Pérez Gómez, 1983 Architecture and the Crisis of Modern Science Alberto Pérez Gómez, Alberto Pérez-Gómez, 1983 Between the late Renaissance and the early nineteenth century the ancient arts of architecture were being profoundly transformed by the scientific revolution This important book which won the 1984 Alice Davis Hitchcock Award traces the process by which the mystical and numerological grounds for the use of number and geometry in building gave way to the more functional and technical ones that prevail in architectural theory and practice today Throughout it relates the major architectural treatises of successive generations to the larger culture and the writings of philosophers mathematicians scientists and engineers Alberto Pérez Gómez is Director of the School of Architecture at Carleton University in Ottawa Architecture and the Crisis of Modern Science Alberto Pérez Gómez, 1983 Attunement Alberto Pérez-Gómez, 2016-07-22 How architecture can move beyond the contemporary enthusiasms for the technically sustainable and the formally dazzling to enhance our human values and capacities Architecture remains in crisis its social relevance lost between the two poles of formal innovation and technical sustainability In Attunement Alberto Pérez Gómez calls for an architecture that can enhance our human values and capacities an architecture that is connected attuned to its location and its inhabitants Architecture Pérez Gómez explains operates as a communicative setting for societies its beauty and its meaning lie in its connection to human health and self understanding Our physical places are of utmost importance for our well being Drawing on recent work in embodied cognition Pérez Gómez argues that the environment including the built environment matters not only as a material ecology but because it is nothing less than a constituent part of our consciousness To be fully self aware we need an external environment replete with meanings and emotions Pérez Gómez views architecture through the lens of mood and atmosphere linking these ideas to the key German concept of Stimmung attunement and its roots in Pythagorean harmony and Vitruvian temperance or proportion He considers the primacy of place over space the linguistic aspect of architecture the voices of architecture and the voice of the architect architecture as a multisensory not pictorial experience with Piranesi Ledoux and Hejduk as examples of metaphorical modeling and how Stimmung might be put to work today to realize the contemporary possibilities of attunement Architecture and the Crisis of Modern Science Alberto Pérez-Gómez, 1983 Architecture and the Crisis of Modern Science Alberto Pérez Gómez, 1988 Architecture and Crisis of Modern Science Alberto Pérez-Gómez, 1983 The Architecture of Jens Fredrick Larson Rod Miller, 2024-08-19 After serving with the Canadian Artillery and becoming an ace with the Royal Flying Corps American Jens Fredrick Larson settled into architecture At age 28 he began work at Dartmouth As his reputation grew he would go on to work with myriad clients and more than thirty five colleges and universities in America and elsewhere including Colby College Bucknell College Wake Forest University the City University of Paris the University of New Brunswick and the Institute for Advanced Study Princeton This text explores the
