At Home In A New Land I Can Read Book 3:

A Light to My Path (Refiner's Fire Book #3) Lynn Austin, 2004-11-01 You don't have to go with Missy Claire. She can't make you go with her. Kitty, a house slave, has always obeyed Missy Claire and followed orders. But when word arrives that the Yankees are coming, Kitty is faced with a decision: Will she continue serving Missy Claire and her household, or will she listen to Grady and embrace this chance for freedom? Even wise Delia says Kitty has to decide for herself that nobody except the Lord can tell her which way to go. Kitty has always lived in a world where authority is not questioned. She never has learned to make up her own mind any more than she has learned to read or write. But now Kitty has a daunting choice. How does she want her story to end? In her bestselling tradition, Lynn Austin brings the Civil War years to life in the Refiner's Fire trilogy.

Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales Beth Bartleson Zarian, 2004-06-28 As more school districts undergo the painstaking task of curriculum integration, resources that offer children an opportunity to live vicariously in times and places they cannot experience any other way become increasingly necessary. Whether two teachers are covering the same topic in separate classes (e.g., English and history) or designing a thematic unit with the school librarian, this book will assist all parties in the selection of high-quality literature. In this handy guide to nearly 800 award-winning historical fiction for Kindergarten through 8th grade, Beth Zarian literally spans the globe. Entries are first divided into three sections: American history, world history, and myths and folklore, then chronologically from prehistoric times to present day, and finally by grade level. Each entry is accompanied by a short annotation. For anyone wishing to teach historical facts in an entertaining way, Around the World with Historical Fiction and Folktales is the only way to travel. NiRV, The Super
