CATEGORY	4	3	2	1
Introduction	The introduction is inviting.	The introduction is not particularly inviting to the reader.	The introduction does not adequately preview the events included in the autobiography & it is not particularly inviting to the reader.	Writing an introduction or the autobiography was attempted,
Organization (Sequence of Events)	Events are placed in logical order & the way they are presented effectively keeps the interest of the reader.	Events are placed in a logical order, but it is evident that events were not included from the Life Map Assignment.	Some events are not in a logical order & this distracts the reader.	Many events are not in a logical order. There is little sense that the writing is organized. The Life Map was not used as a graphic organizer for this assignment.
Conventions (Grammar & Spelling)	Writer makes 1-2 errors in grammar or spelling.	Writer makes 3-4 errors in grammar or spelling.	Writer makes 5 errors in grammar or spelling.	Writer makes more than 5 errors in grammar or spelling that distract the reader from the content,
Content (Accuracy of Facts)	All supportive facts (Life Map) are reported accurately.	Almost all supportive facts (Life Map) are reported accurately.	Most supportive facts (Life Map) are reported accurately.	No facts are reported or most are inaccurately reported.

issues of individual and cultural styles etc can be studied preeminently in the autobiographical genre Yet the tradition of life writing has in the course of literary history developed manifold types and forms Especially in the globalized age where the media and other technological cultural factors contribute to a rapid transformation of lifestyles autobiographical writing has maintained even enhanced its popularity and importance By conceiving autobiography in a wide sense that includes memoirs diaries self portraits and autofiction as well as media transformations of the genre this three volume handbook offers a comprehensive survey of theoretical approaches systematic aspects and historical developments in an international and interdisciplinary perspective While autobiography is usually considered to be a European tradition special emphasis is placed on the modes of self representation in non Western cultures and on inter and transcultural perspectives of the genre The individual contributions are closely interconnected by a system of cross references The handbook addresses scholars of cultural and literary studies students as well as non academic readers

The Cambridge Companion to Autobiography

Maria DiBattista, Emily O. Wittman, 2014-05-29 A historical overview of autobiography from the works of Augustine

Montaigne and Rousseau to the Romantic Victorian and modern eras Against Autobiography Lia Nicole

Brozgal, 2018-08-01 The work of Tunisian Jewish intellectual Albert Memmi like that of many francophone Maghrebian writers is often read as thinly veiled autobiography Questioning the prevailing body of criticism which continues this interpretation of most fiction produced by francophone North African writers Lia Nicole Brozgal shows how such interpretations of Memmi's texts obscure their not inconsiderable theoretical possibilities Calling attention to the ambiguous status of autobiographical discursive and textual elements in Memmi's work Brozgal shifts the focus from the author to theoretical questions Against Autobiography places Memmi's writing and thought in dialogue with several major critical shifts in the late twentieth century literary and cultural landscape These shifts include the crisis of the authorial subject the interrogation of the form of the novel the resistance to the hegemony of vision and the critique of colonialism Showing how Memmi's novels and essays produce theories that resonate both within and beyond their original contexts Brozgal argues for allowing works of francophone Maghrebi literature to be read as complex literary objects that is not simply as ethnographic curios but as generating elements of literary theory on their own terms

The Assessment Debate

Valerie J. Janesick, 2001-11-14 An authoritative reference on one of education's hottest topics describing how the latest testing and assessment tools can be used to help improve student performance In this comprehensive review of the wealth of techniques by which students can be assessed Valerie J Janesick points out that the politics of schooling often gets in the way of student progress High stakes standardized testing is frequently based on poorly constructed unfair tests that encourage teaching to the test which actually impedes educational goals Authentic testing relies more on essays and writing samples performances demonstrations and role plays Although it is fairer and provides a measure of student growth and progress it requires more effort by teachers who also require extra training Besides discussing authentic assessment in detail The Assessment Debate includes a chronology an annotated directory of organizations supporting performance assessment a list of state coordinators for testing reform and state by state report cards
