Bloodline Five Stories:

Bloodline Ernest J. Gaines, 2012-10-31 In these five stories Ernest Gaines returns to the cane fields sharecroppers shacks and decaying plantation houses of Louisiana the terrain of his great novels A Gathering of Old Men and A Lesson Before Dying As rendered by Gaines this country becomes as familiar and as haunted by cruelty suffering and courage as Ralph Ellison's Harlem or Faulkner's Yoknapatawpha County Gaines introduces us to this world through the eyes of guileless children and wizened jailbirds black tenants and white planters He shows his characters eking out a living and making love breaking apart and coming together And on every page he captures the soul of black community whose circumstances make even the slightest assertion of self respect an act of majestic and sometimes suicidal heroism Bloodline is a miracle of storytelling STORIES INCLUDE A Long Day in November The Sky Is Gray Three Men Bloodline Just Like a Tree Restless Travellers Antonio José Miralles Pérez, 2011-08-08 The first part of this book deals with Britain's imperial age its militants and its critics The selection of works generates a large field of debate explored using traditional or innovative approaches The 19th century is presented as a time for writers J E Aylmer E Marryat Norris G A Henty Conan Doyle who tell stories of Europeans venturing forth into uncivilised regions of the world where they meet other races But writers of a different outlook are also considered Before the twilight of Empire women were born in England Virginia Woolf and in Ireland Elizabeth Bowen who would use the ductile means of literature to narrate journeys into the female self instead of masculine tales set in distant lands The imperial experience is a subject of concern and reflection with special interest when authored by natives of former colonies such as Michael Ondaatje's Hindu Sirk hero in The English Patient and the Nigerian girls in some of Patience Agbabi's poems The idea of travelling into or out of the culture to which one apparently belongs and the contradictory feelings such an experience causes pervades the writer's mind and the ensuing narrative The second part can be regarded as a North American miscellany mostly devoted to the African culture although also dealing with European heritage In order to recognise Asian and South American influences as well authors such as Fred Wah Ariel Dorfman and Julia Alvarez have been included Black literature is represented by two 19th century writers Mary Ann Shadd and Martin R Delany who remind us of the fight against slavery and segregation and the path to equality Various 20th century writers Toni Morrison Ernest Gaines Harryette Mullen August Wilson address the African Americans quest for identity presented by some as a journey southwards away from the place of birth or an unsatisfactory life and in search of self knowledge in the land of their forefathers These journeys provide materials for different genres and tones enabling readers to examine the aspirations and fears of a community whose contribution to the history and literature of America has stimulated continuous study The two parts of the book are connected by the underlying discussion of essential conflicts that have occupied travellers traversing imperial spaces or experiencing foreign lands as well as travellers who instead of exotic adventures or romantic sojourns want to settle in a new country be accepted by a nation their ancestors did not know or exercise rights they were denied on their native soil Ernest J. Gaines Karen Carmean,1998-07-28 Drawing on his rich Louisiana past Ernest J Gaines creates a fictional world representative of the human experience His work explores the complex racial relationships so much a part of Southern history and culture and the unwritten and unspoken conventions of caste and class Often structured around journeys of discovery Gaines works affirm the integrity of the individual and the unequivocal place in American life for Americans of African descent This study offers a clear accessible reading of Gaines fiction It analyzes in turn all of Gaines novels as well as his collection of short stories A complete bibliography of Gaines fiction as well as selected reviews and criticism completes the study Following a biographical chapter on Gaines life an overview of his fiction explores his work in light of his literary heritage and use of genre Each of the following chapters examines an individual novel Catherine Carmier 1964 Of Love and Dust 1967 The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman 1971 In My Father s House 1978 A Gathering of Old Men 1983 A Lesson Before Dying 1994 and a collection of short stories Bloodline 1968 The discussion of each work includes sections on plot and character development thematic issues and an alternative critical approach from which to read the novel Carmean shows how each of Gaines novels focuses on themes of personal value and place and affirms the need for recognizing the value of the individual regardless of race This study will help readers to understand the compelling issue of human relationships raised by Gaines and to see why he is one of America s finest writers Voices from the Quarters

Mary Ellen Doyle,2003-08-01 A Choice Outstanding Academic Title Who will write about the way my people talk the way my people sing Mary Ellen Doyle gathers and makes audible the voices arising from all of Ernest J Gaines s fiction to date the indelible characters who inhabit the author s lifelong inspirational territory the bayous cane fields and plantation homes of Louisiana s Pointe Coupee Parish Beginning with the author s upbringing and influences on River Lake plantation amid the pecan trees and live oaks the big house and the tenant quarters this penetrating study offers close readings of Gaines s uncollected short fiction the early collection Bloodline and all of his novels including The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and the acclaimed A Lesson Before Dying Highlighting Gaines s skill at translating oral tales into meaningful fictional forms Doyle advances an original theory of first person narration camcorder and traces its use throughout his work Gaines s unwavering focus on the utterances of his people continually strengthens his artistic development the voices of the early stories fusing with those of the later novels until Gaines earns a unique magisterial voice an implied author who is black but speaks to universals Using critical methods as eclectic as the book s intended audience and drawing from on site research and interviews with Gaines s relatives and friends Doyle offers a variety of perspectives on Gaines s fiction and its world that resonates so powerfully Those who recognize Gaines as one of the finest southern writers of the last forty years will find here an accessible instrument to hear his voices more clearly than ever All My Relatives Bonnie TuSmith,1994 Challenges the prevailing notion that the work of all American writers reflects a sense of determined individualism

Healing Our Bloodlines G. K. Hunter (George Kamana Hunter),2019-09-03 The 8 Realizations featured in Healing Our Bloodlines by G K

Hunter reveal a path to liberation from the cyclic pain passed down from elders to children These realizations were gleaned from 15 years of multi cultural workshops and client sessions where participants bravely faced their family trees to discover the invisible burdens that they had inherited As they lifted those burdens they found their special gifts that were germinating deep inside Those who have embodied the 8 Realizations were rewarded with 8 Birthrights the very nourishment that empowered them to release their past hurt embrace their true passion and celebrate their most authentic identity By walking this path you become a Catalyst for generational change New York Times Bestselling Author Andrew Carroll endorsed Healing Our Bloodlines saying History has a way of leaving indelible even deep scars on a lineage and those wounds often find their way to the next generation of the family tree But Hunter has discovered an empowering way to lift the sometimes painful remnants of the past demonstrating to his readers an approach that sheds this melancholy and helps them to become the living legacy of a healed and inspiring lineage More Endorsements I have spent my life transmitting tradition as a vital and profound means of confronting and celebrating life s hard earned truths George Kamana Hunter has shown me that trauma can be transmitted along with tradition and has distinguished between storytelling and burden dumping His insights are deep his wisdom profound his strategy fascinating and his goals admirable I have learned much from Healing Our Bloodlines It has put into words and into exercises some of struggles of a lifetime of learning wrestling with the past and trying to create a better future for myself and for the world in which I live The great Hasidic Master Menachem Mendel of Kotzk once said Nothing is as whole as a heart that has been broken and mended G K Hunter shows us why Michael Berenbaum original Project Director for the U S Holocaust Memorial Museum Author of The World Must Know The History of the Holocaust Healing Our Bloodlines is a powerful tool for understanding the trauma which affects us all George Kamana Hunter eloquently and poignantly shares with unique personal vulnerability wisdom on how to find a path to freedom and healing It is an unveiling of truths which are sorely need today Joanne Shenandoah Grammy Award winning artist multi cultural peace advocate Native America s most celebrated musician Chronicling Stankonia Regina Bradley,2021-01-29 This vibrant book pulses with the beats of a new American South probing the ways music literature and film have remixed southern identities for a post civil rights generation For scholar and critic Regina N Bradley Outkast s work is the touchstone a blend of funk gospel and hip hop developed in conjunction with the work of other culture creators including T I Kiese Laymon and Jesmyn Ward This work Bradley argues helps define new cultural possibilities for black southerners who came of age in the 1980s and 1990s and have used hip hop culture to buffer themselves from the historical narratives and expectations of the civil rights era Andr 3000 Big Boi and a wider community of creators emerge as founding theoreticians of the hip hop South framing a larger question of how the region fits into not only hip hop culture but also contemporary American society as a whole Chronicling Stankonia reflects the ways that culture race and southernness intersect in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries Although part of southern hip hop culture remains attached to the past Bradley demonstrates how younger southerners use the music to embrace the possibility of multiple Souths multiple narratives and multiple points of entry to contemporary southern black identity Companion to Literature Abby H. P. Werlock, 2009

Praise for the previous edition Booklist RBB Twenty Best Bets for Student Researchers RUSA ALA Outstanding Reference Source useful Recommended for public libraries and undergraduates Porch Talk with Ernest Gaines Marcia Gaudet, Carl Wooton, 1999-03-01 Ernest J. Gaines the author of many acclaimed works of fiction including The Autobiography of Miss Jane Pittman and A Gathering of Old Men was born in 1933 in the small south Louisiana town of Oscar. In his childhood the center of his world was the old slave quarters on the River Lake Plantation where five generations of his family lived. All of Gaines's books have been set in this general area of Louisiana and though none of his work is strictly autobiographical his writing bears the distinctive stamp of the rural folk culture amid which he was raised. Marcia Gaudet and Carl Wooton's Porch Talk with Ernest Gaines is a collection of interviews conducted on the porch of Gaines's home in Lafayette, Louisiana where he is writer in residence at the University of Southwestern Louisiana. Gaines talks about a variety of topics including the influence of other writers among them Faulkner, Hemingway and Mark Twain on his style and the importance of oral tradition and folk culture to his writing. He discusses the major themes of his work such as survival with dignity and the search for manhood and he describes the relationships among the black Creole and Cajun communities of south Louisiana and how they have been portrayed in his fiction. Gaines also comments on the craft of writing his role as a teacher the film versions of some of his books his relationships with his agent and editors and his work in progress. This is the first book length work on Gaines to be published. It will be of importance to scholars and students of American literature particularly southern and Afro American literature because it gives the reader valuable insights into Gaines's life and writing. The format and conversational tone of the book will also appeal to the audience drawn to Gaines's fiction Critical Survey of Short Fiction: James T. Farrell - W.W. Jacobs, 2001
