As Edie tries to pull all the pieces of her life together she finds herself drawn to an alluring night shift nurse who stops by for coffee every evening after sunset while contending with a quirky new roommate who sleeps in an honest to God coffin. When all three worlds collide spectacularly Edie's eyes are opened to a new and untapped market that just may be the key to saving her family's coffee shop. However when her Draculattes and Cold Blood Cold Brews begin to raise more alarm than sales suddenly the stakes involved appear to be of the wooden variety.

Digest: Ten Short Stories by Convicted & Plausible People-Eaters Evan Witmer, 2021-01-01 I've tracked down ten authors who have at some point participated in the act of cannibalism. I've collected one short story from each writer and combined them here for your amusement and observation. Isaac Cone presents Margaritaville Jimmy Buffet's hit song reinterpreted as a southern gothic. Sandeyu Yamamoto writes Antiquing about a family with a rare type of OCD where they haunt the object they most obsessed over. John Doe submits Jesus Christ Meets the Chupacabra which is exactly what it sounds like. Arsenio Alonso adds A Vacancy in Staffordshire about a team of researchers hunting for black-eyed kids in the British wilderness. Greige Wagner contributes The Life Times of a Rockefeller Pregnancy Zombie about a girl who is hypnotized by the New World Order to feel unfathomable pain unless she uses her every egg for procreation. Mago Schlecter's brings us Ring the Belles a mix between historical fiction and a slasher where the villain only kills the teenaged daughters of slave owners in the Antebellum South. Cassius Crown surrenders Zooland about a cursed town where everyone is reduced to their id at night becoming either vicious wolves or delicious deer. Bonny Bride sends Glee Maiden a story about a woman seeking to make it in the male dominated field of killer clowning. Matthew Hoga pens Comorbidity the story of two different plagues of zombie with wildly different styles that collide in the ruins of Zhengzhou, China. Joss Iger authors Six O's the most light-hearted of the bunch about a man who can only orgasm six more times before he can never do it again. I share these stories in hopes of emphasizing the unique voices oft ignored in favor of traditional masticators.

The Bloodline of the Forgotten Scarlett Stoyer, This book delves into the mysterious and hidden origins of humanity and supernatural bloodlines exploring ancient texts, relics, mythology and legends that reveal the deeper connections between human evolution and supernatural entities. It uncovers the ancient artifacts and symbols that hint at long forgotten civilizations and prehistoric creatures offering insights into how supernatural powers are passed through generations. The narrative examines the hierarchical societies of supernatural beings, their motives and their influence on current world events. Through archaeological discoveries, cryptic symbols and personal encounters the book investigates the resurgence of supernatural forces and the efforts to protect and control these powerful lineages. It also guides readers on recognizing signs of awakening, harnessing inherited abilities and understanding the intricate balance between human and supernatural realms. With case studies, historical reflections and strategies for survival and defense this work presents a comprehensive exploration of the unseen forces shaping our past present and future Restless Travellers Antonio José Miralles Pérez, 2011-08-08 The first part of this book deals with Britain's imperial age its militants and its critics The selection of works generates a large field of debate explored using traditional or innovative approaches The 19th century is presented as a time for writers J E Aylmer E Marryat Norris G A Henty Conan Doyle who tell stories of Europeans venturing forth into uncivilised regions of the world where they meet other races But writers of a different outlook are also considered Before the twilight of Empire women were born in England Virginia Woolf and in Ireland Elizabeth Bowen who would use the ductile means of literature to narrate journeys into the female self instead of masculine tales set in distant lands The imperial experience is a subject of concern and reflection with special interest when authored by natives of former colonies such as Michael Ondaatje's Hindu Sirk hero in The English Patient and the Nigerian girls in some of Patience Agbabi's poems The idea of travelling into or out of the culture to which one apparently belongs and the contradictory feelings such an experience causes pervades the writer's mind and the ensuing narrative The second part can be regarded as a North American miscellany mostly devoted to the African culture although also dealing with European heritage In order to recognise Asian and South American influences as well authors such as Fred Wah Ariel Dorfman and Julia Alvarez have been included Black literature is represented by two 19th century writers Mary Ann Shadd and Martin R Delany who remind us of the fight against slavery and segregation and the path to equality Various 20th century writers Toni Morrison Ernest Gaines Harryette Mullen August Wilson address the African Americans quest for identity presented by some as a journey southwards away from the place of birth or an unsatisfactory life and in search of self knowledge in the land of their forefathers These journeys provide materials for different genres and tones enabling readers to examine the aspirations and fears of a community whose contribution to the history and literature of America has stimulated continuous study The two parts of the book are connected by the underlying discussion of essential conflicts that have occupied travellers traversing imperial spaces or experiencing foreign lands as well as travellers who instead of exotic adventures or romantic sojourns want to settle in a new country be accepted by a nation their ancestors did not know or exercise rights they were denied on their native soil
