Volume Two Victor I. Ezigbo,2015-12-31 Should Christianity s theological face remain largely European and North American in the twenty first century in the wake of the expansion of Christianity in sub Saharan Africa Asia and Latin America The question about the theological face of Christianity cannot be ignored For too long African Asian and Latin American theologians have been left out of mainstream theological discussions Few standard textbooks on Christian theology acknowledge the unique contributions theologians from these continents have made to global Christianity Introducing

Christian Theologies Voices from Global Christian Communities is a two volume textbook that alters the predominantly European and North American theological face of Christianity by interacting with voices of Christian communities from across the globe Introducing Christian Theologies explores the works of key theologians from around the world highlighting their unique contributions to Christian theology and doctrine

World Christianity and the Unfinished Task

F. Lionel Young, III, 2021-03-15 This book is a short introduction to one of the most remarkable transformations in the modern world that many people still do not know about In 1900 more than 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America and nearly all of the world's missionaries were sent out from the West to the rest In a dramatic turn of events Christianity experienced a decidedly Southern shift during the twentieth century Today nearly 70 percent of the world's 2.5 billion Christians live in Africa Asia and Latin America while nearly half of all missionaries are being sent out into all the world from places like Brazil Ethiopia and South Korea This book is intended to change the way readers think about the church and challenge the way Western Christians engage in contemporary missions

Separate No More

Norman A. Peart, 2022-08-02 Even though our society has made great strides forward in social justice since the civil rights era there remains a disturbing racial divide in our churches and among Christians In Separate No More Norman Peart argues that although racial reconciliation has been viewed as a peripheral matter by the church it should be at the heart of the church's message and mission Through this book you will be encouraged to actively participate in the ministry of racial reconciliation and to lead your local church in pursuing the goal of being separate no more

Christianity and Wokeness

Playing Favorites

Rodger Woodworth, 2021-11-30 According to recent research our brains prefer the path of least resistance when it comes to engaging people who are unlike us in fact our brains tell us to perceive anyone different than us as a threat That is a nice way to say that despite our best intentions we all have our prejudices and preferences In biblical terms we show partiality toward people who resemble us we play favorites Much of our identity community and power are established by the measurement of our differences from others justifying our need to categorize people Even when we attempt to engage other races and cultures we see it as a one way bridge taking our way of life across the river to enlighten those different than us It assumes we are on the bank of the undistorted view of the world and our understanding of the other side is not important. The proper response is to encourage two way traffic on the bridge not only by having dialogue with people over the bridge but more importantly listening to them. Overcoming our prejudices and bridging the cultural divide is the result of living out the gospel and it is the most significant way to communicate the gospel. Expository Exultation John Piper, 2018-04-16

God has appointed preaching in worship as one great means of accomplishing his ultimate goal in the world. John Piper. John Piper makes a compelling claim in these pages about the purpose of preaching: it is intended not merely as an explanation of the text but also as a means of awakening worship by being worship in and of itself. Christian preaching is a God appointed miracle aiming to awaken the supernatural seeing, savoring and showing of the glory of Christ. Distilling over forty years of experience in preaching and teaching, Piper shows preachers how and what to communicate from God's Word so that God's purpose on earth will advance through Bible-saturated, Christ-exalting, God-centered preaching. In other words, expository exultation.
