The book is a rich tapestry of Kadiba's story. It records the momentous events in his life, various places he has travelled through, significant people in his life, his spiritual life and thought, and his cultural roots which have shaped him as an individual. The book tells of his childhood, his schooling, and his education. Kadiba sees his schooling and search for education as a decisive thread in his symbolic journey which eventually takes him to settle in North Australia, away from his people and culture. Growing up in the colonial era, the book traces his journey through many changes in PNG during the colonial and post-colonial times. The story also recounts his long and at times troubled association with religious institutions both in PNG and Australia. In many ways, the book portrays a very personal story. It tells of Kadiba's family life, his courtship and marriage, death in the family, and his children growing up in contemporary multicultural Australia. The Turning Tide Evelyn Ward McDonald, 1955
