Reducing Toxics Robert Gottlieb, 2013-04-22 In Reducing Toxics leading experts address industry, technology, health and policy issues and explore the potential for pollution prevention at the industry and facility levels. They consider both the regulatory and institutional settings of toxics reduction initiatives, prescribe strategies for developing a prevention framework and apply these principles in analyzing industry case studies. Among the topics considered are the evolution of and limits to current environmental policy, incorporating prevention into production planning and decisionmaking, do voluntary programs lead to industry greening or greenwashing, case studies of the chemical, aerosols, radiator repair and electric vehicle industries, opportunities for and barriers to pollution prevention. Reducing Toxics offers an analytic framework for defining and understanding different approaches in the toxics area and describes the basis for a new policy and industrial decisionmaking construct.

Political Continuity and Conflict in East Timor Ruth Nuttall, 2021-06-14 This book examines the history of political continuity and conflict in East Timor between 1974 and 2006 and the origins of an unexpected crisis in 2006 which caused an international military intervention and several more years of UN missions. Providing a fresh and empirical political history to explain the crisis, the book offers new dimensions to the understanding of East Timor, its independence struggles, political transition and politics after independence in 2002. The author revisits historical materials and brings to light new resources, making extensive use of the 2005 Report of the Commission for Reception, Truth and Reconciliation and contemporary diplomatic, UN and news media reports to provide a precise context and chronology for the events in 2006. The book provides an analysis within which factors such as ethnic and inter-communal violence, security sector weaknesses and conflict between the army and police, the constitution and legal system, state building and peace building can be located in the larger context of the 2006 crisis. Demonstrating how and why in the space of four weeks in April and May 2006 the newly independent country of Timor-Leste plunged from UN success story into catastrophe, this book will be of interest to academics working on Southeast Asian Politics, Southeast Asian history, Development Studies and Nation State and Peace Building and International Relations.
