

The background of the entire cover is a photograph of a large, mature tree with dense green foliage. The tree's branches spread across the upper two-thirds of the frame. In the lower third, a long, low building with a dark roof and light-colored walls is visible, partially obscured by the tree's base and a green lawn in the foreground.

Auldbrass Frank Lloyd Wrights Southern Plantation:

Auldbrass David Gilson De Long, 2003 A revised and updated edition of this comprehensive volume dedicated to Wright's only plantation design Although Frank Lloyd Wright designed more than 1 000 projects during his long and prolific career Auldbrass Plantation in Yemassee South Carolina is the only plantation he ever designed It is also one of the largest and most complex projects he ever undertook Wright had an unusually intense commitment to Auldbrass and worked on it off and on for more than twenty years from 1938 until his death in 1959 Because Auldbrass was private and because it fell into disrepair in the 1960s after the owners death it was rarely photographed or studied and as a consequence little has been known about this major work With a recently completed restoration and new photography this book affords a rare opportunity to see one of Wright's greatest works as the master himself originally envisioned it Through photos plans and drawings we see what Wright planned and how it has finally all been either restored or realized for the first time In 1986 film producer Joel Silver Die Hard Lethal Weapon 48 Hours Predator Romeo Must Die The Matrix and over forty other films bought Auldbrass He had earlier bought and meticulously restored Wright's famous 1923 Storer House in Hollywood Now he has again collaborated with Wright's grandson architect Eric Lloyd Wright who restored the Storer House to restore the Auldbrass Plantation
