Aunt Mary's Primer L. Frank Baum, 2015-12-03 There is no doubt that John Merrick was eccentric It is generally conceded that a rich man may indulge in eccentricities provided he maintains a useful position in society and Mr Merrick's peculiarities only served to render him the more interesting to those who knew him best He did astonishing things in a most matter of fact way and acted more on impulse than on calm reflection so it is not to be wondered at that the queer little man's nieces had imbibed some of his queerness Being by nature lively and aggressive young women whose eager interest in life would not permit them to be idle they encountered many interesting experiences Progressively Hardening
