Laudicina, 2012-09-04 The Answer to Global Overload Contending with the 24 7 news cycle and an endless barrage of choices and information has stymied leadership and decision making strategies among those at the top But we all know this is not a just a problem for the elite The broad based reaction to this chaotic unmanageable assault has been to retrench and to focus on immediate controllable decisions In the process we lose sight of the horizon More dangerous still is the shift we ve seen from value creation to wealth creation where information technology 1 0 has enabled a transaction based society in which the deal is more important than the value it drives or the relationships it is based on On our current path the odds of a better future are slim What we need is a new value proposition Beating the Global Odds is the answer to the dangers of too much of a good thing There s no going back but there is the opportunity to set things right In this book Paul A Laudicina Managing Partner and Chairman of the Board of global consulting firm A T Kearney provides a fast paced and engaging tour of how we got to this point and what we can do about it Drawing on examples from everything from world history and current media to anecdotes from his vast network of CEOs and the world s most innovative thinkers Laudicina helps bring our world of seemingly fuzzy and disconnected pixels into sharp focus The result is a compelling case for change and call to action not only for global leaders but also for everyone who struggles with the question of how we can inspire and seize a better future how we can beat the global odds

Women Activating Agency in Academia Alison L. Black, Susanne Garvis, 2018-04-17

Women Activating Agency in Academia seeks to create and expand safe spaces for scholarly professional and personal stories and assemblages of agency. It provides readers with the opportunity to connect with the strategies women are using to navigate academe and the core values linked to trust, relationship, wellbeing, and ethics of care they live by. The collection offers the stories of women academics from around the globe and across disciplines and showcases their efforts to meaningfully listen and converse in order to resist self-audit and diminished identities. Reflections come from a range of responsive personal and aesthetic techniques including writing groups, guided autobiography, auto-ethnography, collective activism, and slow scholarship. Chapters engage with themes and ideas such as agency, neoliberalism, ontological security, androcentricity, identity, and collegial support which manifest in unique ways for female academics. The focus in this volume is what really matters to women in the academy as they share their efforts to be themselves in their work, to care for themselves and others, and to count what isn't counted. It aims to prove how collaborative storytelling and discussion can empower female academics to preserve and achieve these ambitions.
