The Commission has also been asked to consider the possibility of a new type of licence for the use of the radio spectrum, which would be based on the principle of "use it or lose it". This would mean that if a licence holder does not use the spectrum for a certain period of time, the licence would be automatically revoked. This would encourage more efficient use of the spectrum and reduce the risk of spectrum hoarding.

1. The first step is to identify the problem or question that needs to be answered. This involves understanding the context and the specific requirements of the task.
