Affirmative Action Around The World An Empirical Study:

Affirmative Action Around the World Thomas Sowell, 2004-01-01 An eminent authority presents a new perspective on affirmative action in a provocative book that will stir fresh debate about this vitally important issue Routledge Handbook of the Sociology of Higher Education James E. Côté, 2016-06-03 This is the first handbook to cover the sociological approaches to higher education It is timely because of global expansions of mass higher educational systems especially as these systems come under scrutiny by a variety of stakeholders Questions are being raised about the value of traditional pedagogies along with calls for efficiency accountability and cost reduction but above all job training Within this neoliberal context each chapter examines different sociological aspects of and debates about educational institutions as status conferring organizations with myriad positional characteristics experiences and outcomes Many current debates concern the legitimacy of the statuses conferred including the continuing debate regarding the role of universities in legitimating social class reproduction as well as more recent concerns about standards in mass systems This handbook puts these issues and debates in focus in ways that will be of interest to a variety of stakeholders within academia as well as in policy circles

Spheres of Injustice Bruno Perreau, 2025-04-08 How minority issues concern all of us and why a new conception of justice grounded in solidarity can revitalize democracy How can the rights of minorities be protected in democracies The question has been front and center in the US since the Supreme Court's repeal of affirmative action In Europe too minority politics are being challenged Reactionary groups abuse the notion of minority by demanding to be protected just as minorities are while the notion of a protected class risks encouraging competition among minorities Also in the age of algorithms the very concept of minority is being transformed the law of averages is replacing that of the greater number In Spheres of Injustice Bruno Perreau shows how can we revitalize minority politics and make the fight against discrimination beneficial for all Perreau proposes thinking about minority experiences relationally How one person is governed has a direct impact on how another is Legal provisions that protect gender can be used to protect race those that protect disability can protect age sexual orientation or class and so on This is what Perreau calls intrasectionality a new concept and an innovative legal strategy which builds on the idea of intersectionality This book takes up many concrete cases discrimination at work and access to healthcare new techniques of deliberation innovative teaching practices etc and connects them to the history of minority movements the sociology of violence and contemporary theories of justice Updating one of the greatest classics of political theory Spheres of Justice A Defense of Pluralism and Equality by Michael Walzer Perreau shows that minority presence can teach new forms of responsibility to one another and that the resonances between experiences of injustice much more than a belief in shared moral principles ground a political community

Promoting Gender Equality in Political Participation
Damilola Taiye Agbalajobi, 2021-03-17 This book analyses patterns of women's political participation and evaluates disparity between levels of women's participation in politics and representation in governance in Nigeria It also examines the causes of women's underrepresentation in governance and decision making as well as their implications for the country's socioeconomic development and describes strategies for increased women's representation in governance and decision making in Nigeria. This study relies on political culture and liberal feminist theory and adopts a mixed method research design involving quantitative and qualitative methods. It uses multistage sampling in selecting Nigeria's South East North West and South West geopolitical zones and 1206 women of electoral age for the study survey conducted using structured questionnaire and in depth interview.

Women and Political Inequality in Japan Mikiko Eto, 2020-12-17 Why are there so few Japanese women involved in the political system? In 2019 Japanese women made up 10% of the national Lower House 21% of the Upper House and 14% of local assemblies. According to the Inter Parliamentary Union this places Japan 164th out of 193 countries when it comes to women's representation in the legislature. The percentage of women in the Lower House has only increased by fewer than two percentage points since women gained full suffrage and the right to stand for election in Japan in 1946. Eto analyses the various factors that have led to women's low presence in the Japanese legislature. She evaluates ways in which it might be possible for Japan to catch up and in doing so examines how Japanese society continues to perpetuate gender rigid expectations of people. This text is a valuable study for scholars of Japanese politics and society and for readers with an interest in the broader issue of the representation of women in politics.

Media Dictatorship Cedrick Ngalande, 2022-07-18 Media Dictatorship: How Schools and Educators Can Defend Freedom of Speech outlines how the American media amasses enormous power and uses it to control every aspect of the people's lives including schools elections science and freedom of thought. Even religious institutions supposedly answerable to God only are now being influenced and controlled by media. This book discusses the devastating consequences of such control on democracy and our civilization and then offers suggestions on what can be done to identify media propaganda and defend freedom of speech. The school system has always been the first line of defense for patriotism and democracy. It is important for teachers to understand the consequences of a powerful media that does not tolerate diversity of thought. This book will encourage teachers to cultivate independence of thought among students. School administrators too have a responsibility to ensure that school campuses are sanctuaries of freedom of thought where leaders of tomorrow are taught to be tolerant of opposing views In the larger public outside the school campus Media Dictatorship will spur a robust debate about the kind of media that can help nurture our democracy and civilization
