At The Manger The Story Of Those Who Were There:

, At the Manger Peter Vance Orullian,2001 Who were those who stood at the manger the night Jesus was born What are their stories What of the carpenter who built the manger Or the midwife who helped Mary deliver the child What is the origin of the swaddling clothes that wrapped the babe At the The Stories of Those Who Were There is a collection of inspirational tales which poses possible answers to these questions Residents of Bethlehem and travelers from Rome alike stand as witnesses in the stillness of the night to the profound humble birth Through their own trials those blessed to be present at the Nativity are woven into a fabric of mutual dependence and ultimate redemption And through great personal sacrifice gifts are laid at the foot of the crib while the reciprocal treasures of liberation peace and love blossom in the hearts of the givers Experience the joy of Christmas by taking a journey back in time and partaking of the lives of those first to greet the newborn babe At the Manger shares the gentle reminder that giving is an act of love and ennoble us most when it is a gift of self

Grandpa's Stories Ronald (Ronn) L. Shank,2012-09-17 A number of years ago now as one of my grandsons first birthday approached I thought about what to give a one year old There are a million things that will be played with for a short while then either broken or ignored I wanted to give something special something lasting something that even when older he might still enjoy Then it struck me since he likes the silly little stories I tell him upon his request that maybe I could write some cute little short stories with a moral as well just for him and any of my other grandchildren as well when shared Thats all it took to get me started Since then each year I write a little story that somehow relates to something in his life When another grandchild came along he also was added to the list of recipients of original stories When I got to thinking about it I decided there may be other grandparents that would like to spend time with their grandchild reading a little story Now a few years down the pike and I have enough for a book And so herein I offer my readers a chance to share the joy of time spent reading to a child That is why my stories were written in the first place Children go through phases as with my grandchildren there were the dinosaurs whales especially the blue whale hedge hogs puppies and gold fish Im sure you get my drift All of these fed my imagination and help to produce stories that have a connection and personal touch for both the child and me These stories are not written for children to read but rather for a loving adult to sit down with child on their lap or side by side on a shared sofa and be read to I recommend using funny voices and lots of emphasis and maybe a tickle or two at just the right moment to add flavor and a garnish to each story The giggles like sparklers on the 4th of July will shower joy in all directions and warm the heart of the one reading the story and those close by Do not be concerned about the content all the stories contained in this book are rated PG to be read by Parent or Grandparent I hope you will enjoy these short stories even more that I did writing them

Blodgett, John G. Whittier, Christian Burke, Emily Huntington Miller, Cyril Winterbotham, Enoch Arnold Bennett, John Punnett Peters, 2023-12-09 Santa's Library 400 Christmas Novels Stories Poems Carols Legends is a compendium of literary treasures capturing the multifaceted spirit of the holiday season. Spanning diverse genres and encompassing a rich tapestry of styles, this anthology traverses the realms of festive narratives from poignant stories of redemption and magical encounters to timeless carols that resonate with universal joy. Notable narratives weave through the pages, inviting readers into a world where the contrasts of human experience converge during the most wonderful time of the year. From traditional celebrations to imaginative tales, this collection showcases the enduring charm and diversity of Christmas literature, carefully curated to incite both reflection and delight. The anthology features an impressive array of authors, from literary titans like Dickens, Twain, and Alcott to European luminaries such as Dostoevsky and Tolstoy. These authors, along with an expansive roster of both celebrated and obscure writers from various eras, lend their unique voices to this collection, enriching its exploration of Christmas themes. Culled from a wide historical spectrum, the works align with the cultural and literary currents that have shaped our understanding and celebration of Christmas, offering insights into societal values and personal tribulations alike. Readers are invited to explore Santa's Library not merely as a collection of Christmas-themed writings but as a profound exploration into the collective human experience as manifested through global cultures and literary expressions. It provides an unparalleled opportunity to navigate the breadth of Christmas storytelling, glean insights and inspiration from myriad perspectives. An educational and enriching experience awaits, promising to spark dialogue and deepen appreciation for the diversity of tradition celebrated within these pages.

Seasons Of Faith Sheryl Stewart, 2013. A charming collection of short stories. Seasons of Faith lifts up the various seasons celebrated during worship and includes production scripts for chancel dramas and skits intended for youth performances. Included are stories for Advent, Christmas, Watch Night, or New Year's Day, Lent, Palm Sunday, Maundy Thursday, Good Friday, Easter, Pentecost, and Thanksgiving. They are great as resources for parents, pastors, youth leaders, and church educators, yet they are mainly designed to be read and colored by a child. Modern versions of traditional legends and completely new stories form a tapestry presenting Jesus' birth, life, ministry, death, and resurrection from unexpected points of view, including people, some based on Bible characters and others completely imaginary, angels, animals, plants, and the very soil itself. As each character discovers their part in God's Plan of Salvation, they enable us to discover the miracle of God's love for us all.
