Barnes And Noble Fairfax:

Reluctant Capitalists Laura J. Miller, 2008-09-15 Over the past half century bookselling like many retail industries has evolved from an arena dominated by independent bookstores to one in which chain stores have significant market share And as in other areas of retail this transformation has often been a less than smooth process This has been especially pronounced in bookselling argues Laura J Miller because more than most other consumer goods books are the focus of passionate debate What drives that debate And why do so many people believe that bookselling should be immune to questions of profit In Reluctant Capitalists Miller looks at a century of book retailing demonstrating that the independent chain dynamic is not entirely new It began one hundred years ago when department stores began selling books continued through the 1960s with the emergence of national chain stores and exploded with the formation of superstores in the 1990s The advent of the Internet has further spurred tremendous changes in how booksellers approach their business All of these changes have met resistance from book professionals and readers who believe that the book business should somehow be above market forces and instead embrace more noble priorities Miller uses interviews with bookstore customers and members of the book industry to explain why books evoke such distinct and heated reactions She reveals why customers have such fierce loyalty to certain bookstores and why they identify so strongly with different types of books In the process she also teases out the meanings of retailing and consumption in American culture at large underscoring her point that any type of consumer behavior is inevitably political with consequences for communities as well as commercial institutions The American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association, 1922 Brief history of Hereford cattle v 1 p 359 375 Rowing News ,2004-06 Rowing News ,2005-05 A Southern Spy in Northern Virginia Charles V. Mauro, 2019-01-23 The remarkable true story of the woman who sheltered Confederate soldiers and gathered intelligence and the secret book given to her by J E B Stuart As the Civil War raged Confederate brigadier general J E B Stuart entrusted a secret album to Laura Ratcliffe a young girl in Fairfax County as a token of his high appreciation of her patriotism admiration of her virtues and pledge of his lasting esteem A devoted Southerner Laura provided a safe haven for Rebel forces along with intelligence gathered from passing Union soldiers Ratcliffe s book contains four poems and forty undated signatures twenty six of Confederate officers and soldiers and fourteen of loyal Confederate civilians In A Southern Spy in Northern Virginia Charles V Mauro uncovers the mystery behind this album identifying who the soldiers were and when they could have signed its pages The result is a fascinating look at the covert lives and relationships of civilians and soldiers during the war kept hidden until now Includes photos and illustrations American Hereford Record and Hereford Herd Book American Hereford Cattle Breeders' Association, 1921 Rowing News ,2004 Car-Free Los Angeles and Southern California Nathan Landau, 2011-11-15 Car Free Los Angeles and Southern California is designed by a transportation city planner who works for a bus transit agency in Oakland California as a complete guide to a car free vacation in Southern California from the time travelers land or arrive until the time they leave Car Free Los Angeles and Southern California reveals how to get from the airport or the train or bus station into town and how to plug into the transit network to travel car free to the fun places The book also lists good transit accessible places to stay things to see in Southern California and how to get there Rowing News ,2004-07 Rowing News ,2005-03
