Bas Jan Ader Death Is Elsewhere:

Bas Jan Ader Alexander Dumbadze, 2013-05-27 On July 9 1975 Dutch born artist Bas Jan Ader set sail from Chatham Massachusetts on a thirteen foot sailboat He was bound for Falmouth England on the second leg of a three part piece titled In Search of the Miraculous The damaged boat was found south of the western tip of Ireland nearly a year later Ader was never seen again Since his untimely death Ader has achieved mythic status in the art world as a figure literally willing to die for his art Considering the artist s legacy and concise oeuvre beyond the romantic and tragic associations that accompany his peculiar end Alexander Dumbadze resituates Ader s art and life within the conceptual art world of Los Angeles in the early 1970s and offers a nuanced argument about artistic subjectivity that explains Ader s tremendous relevance to contemporary art Bas Jan Ader blends biography theoretical reflection and archival research to draw a detailed picture of the world in which Ader s work was rooted a vibrant international art scene populated with peers such as Ger van Elk William Leavitt and Allen Ruppersberg Dumbadze looks closely at Ader s engagement with questions of free will and his ultimate success in creating art untainted by mediation The first in depth study of this enigmatic conceptual artist Bas Jan Ader is a thoughtful reflection on the necessity of the creative act and its inescapable relation to death Slapstick: An Interdisciplinary Companion Ervin Malakaj, Alena E. Lyons, 2021-10-25

Despite its unabated popularity with audiences slapstick has received rather little scholarly attention mostly by scholars concentrating on the US theater and cinema traditions Nonetheless as a form of physical humor slapstick has a long history across various areas of cultural production This volume approaches slapstick both as a genre of situational physical comedy and as a mode of communicating an affective situation captured in various cultural products Contributors to the volume examine cinematic literary dramatic musical and photographic texts and performances From medieval chivalric romance and nineteenth century theater to contemporary photography the contributors study treatments of slapstick across media periods and geographic locations The aim of a study of such wide scope is to demonstrate how slapstick emerged from a variety of complex interactions among different traditions and by extension to illustrate that slapstick can be highly productive for interdisciplinary research Creating the Future Michael Fallon, 2017-05-30

Conceived as a challenge to long standing conventional wisdom Creating the Future is a work of social history cultural criticism that examines the premise that the progress of art in Los Angeles ceased during the 1970s after the decline of the Ferus Gallery the scattering of its stable of artists Robert Irwin Ed Kienholz Ed Moses Ed Rusha and others and the economic struggles throughout the decade and didn t resume until sometime around 1984 when Mark Tansey Alison Saar Judy Fiskin Carrie Mae Weems David Salle Manuel Ocampo among others became stars in an exploding art market However this is far from the reality of the L A art scene in the 1970s The passing of those fashionable 1960s era icons in fact allowed the development of a chaotic array of outlandish and independent voices marginalized communities and energetic sometimes bizarre visions that thrived during the stagnant 1970s Fallon s narrative describes and celebrates through twelve thematically arranged chapters the wide range of intriguing artists and the world not just the objects they created He reveals the deeper more culturally dynamic truth about a significant moment in American art history presenting an alternative story of stubborn creativity in the face of widespread ignorance and misapprehension among the art cognoscenti who dismissed the 1970s in Los Angeles as a time of dissipation and decline Coming into being right before their eyes was an ardent local feminist art movement which had lasting influence on the direction of art across the nation an emerging Chicano Art movement spreading Chicano murals across Los Angeles and to other major cities a new and more modern vision for the role and look of public art a slow consolidation of local street sensibilities car fetishism gang and punk aesthetics into the earliest version of what would later become the Lowbrow art movement the subversive co-opting in full view of Pop Art of the values aesthetics and imagery of Tinseltown by a number of young and innovative local artists who would go on to greater national renown and a number of independent voices who lacking the support structures of an art movement or artist cohort pursued their brilliant artistic visions in near isolation Despite the lack of attention these artists would later reemerge as visionary signposts to many later trends in art Their work would prove more interesting more lastingly influential and vastly more important than ever imagined or expected by those who saw it or even by those who created it in 1970 s Los Angeles Creating the Future is a visionary work that seeks to recapture this important decade and its influence on today s generation of artists
