The Routledge Handbook of Critical Public Relations Jacquie L'Etang, David McKie, Nancy Snow, Jordi Xifra, 2015-08-11 Critical theory has a long history but a relatively recent intersection with public relations This ground breaking collection engages with commonalities and differences in the traditions whilst encouraging plural perspectives in the contemporary public relations field Compiled by a high profile and widely respected team of academics and bringing together other key scholars from this field and beyond this unique international collection marks a major stage in the evolution of critical public relations It will increasingly influence how critical theory informs public relations and communication The collection takes stock of the emergence of critical public relations alongside diverse theoretical traditions critiques and actions methodologies and future implications This makes it an essential reference for public relations researchers educators and students around a world that is becoming more critical in the face of growing inequality and environmental challenges The volume is also of interest to scholars in advertising branding communication consumer studies cultural studies marketing media studies political communication and sociology The Oxford Handbook of Human Motivation Richard M. Ryan, 2019 The Oxford Handbook of Human Motivation Second Edition contains contributions by the top psychologists and researchers within the field of motivation covering the most influential theories the cognitive emotional and biological underpinnings of motivation and applications to schools organizations health care sport psychotherapy and relationships These 28 chapters thus span the science of human motivation and offer an invaluable resource for both researchers and practitioners as well as any student of human nature Leisure Marketing Susan Horner, John Swarbrooke, 2012-06-25 Divided into nine parts Leisure Marketing a global perspective guides the reader through leisure and marketing concepts the marketing mix key issues in different sectors topical issues such as globalisation marketing research and ethics for example branding and environmental issues and the future of leisure marketing A section of the book is devoted entirely to international case studies which illustrate and highlight key themes and issues raised throughout in order to facilitate learning Example of international cases used are Disneyland Resort Paris The Marketing Mix Manchester United Football Club Marketing the Brand The Growth of the Online Retail Travel Market Hilton Head Island USA The Leisure Island for Golf and Leisure Shopping Health Leisure and Tourism Marketing including Spa Hotels Health Clubs and lake Resorts This book combines real world experience with a solid theoretical framework It is essential reading for anyone studying teaching or working in marketing in the leisure industry Managing eBook Metadata in Academic Libraries Donna E Frederick, 2016-01-07 Managing ebook Metadata in Academic Libraries Taming the Tiger tackles the topic of ebooks in academic libraries a trend that has been welcomed by students faculty researchers and library staff However at the same time the reality of acquiring ebooks making them discoverable and managing them presents library staff with many new challenges Traditional methods of cataloging and managing library resources are no longer relevant where the purchasing of ebooks in packages and demand driven acquisitions are the predominant models for acquiring new content Most academic libraries have a complex metadata environment wherein multiple systems draw upon the same metadata for different purposes This complexity makes the need for standards based interoperable metadata more important than ever In addition to complexity the nature of the metadata environment itself typically varies slightly from library to library making it difficult to recommend a single set of practices and procedures which would be relevant to and effective in all academic libraries Considering all of these factors together it is not surprising when academic libraries find it difficult to create and manage the metadata for their ebook collections This book is written as a guide for metadata librarians other technical services librarians and ancillary library staff who manage ebook collections to help them understand the requirements for ebook metadata in their specific library context to create a vision for ebook metadata management and to develop a plan which addresses the relevant issues in metadata management at all stages of the lifecycle of ebooks in academic libraries from selection to deselection or preservation Explores the reasons behind creating records for our resources and challenges libraries to think about what that means for their context Discusses the complex nature of academic libraries and the electronic resources they require Encourages librarians to find their own way to manage metadata
