Curatopia Philipp Schorch, Conal McCarthy, 2018-11-30 What is the future of curatorship Is there a vision for an ideal model a curatopia whether in the form of a utopia or dystopia Or is there a plurality of approaches amounting to a curatorial heterotopia This pioneering volume addresses these questions by considering the current state of curatorship It reviews the different models and approaches operating in museums galleries and cultural organisations around the world and discusses emerging concerns challenges and opportunities The collection explores the ways in which the mutual asymmetrical relations underpinning global scientific entanglements of the past can be transformed into more reciprocal symmetrical forms of cross cultural curatorship in the present arguing that this is the most effective way for curatorial practice to remain meaningful International in scope the volume covers three regions Europe North America and the Pacific

On the Natural History of Destruction W.G. Sebald, 2004-02-17 During World War Two 131 German cities and towns were targeted by Allied bombs a good number almost entirely flattened Six hundred thousand German civilians died a figure twice that of all American war casualties Seven and a half million Germans were left homeless Given the astonishing scope of the devastation W G Sebald asks why does the subject occupy so little space in Germany's cultural memory On the Natural History of Destruction probes deeply into this ominous silence

Campo Santo W.G. Sebald, 2011-10-19 W G Sebald exemplified the best kind of cosmopolitan literary intelligence humane digressive deeply erudite unassuming and tinged with melancholy In Campo Santo Sebald reveals his distinctive tone as his winding sentences gradually mingle together curiosity and plangency learning and self revelation Readers will be rewarded with unexpected illuminations The Washington Post Book World This final collection of essays by W G Sebald offers profound ruminations on many themes common to his work the power of memory and personal history the connections between images in the arts and life the presence of ghosts in places and artifacts Some of these pieces pay tribute to the Mediterranean island of Corsica weaving elegiacally between past and present examining among other things the island's formative effect on its most famous citizen Napoleon In others Sebald examines how the works of Günter Grass and Heinrich Böll reveal the grave and lasting deformities in the emotional lives of postwar Germans how Kafka echoes Sebald's own interest in spirit presences among mortal beings and how literature can be an attempt at restitution for the injustices of the real world Dazzling in its erudition accessible in its deep emotion Campo Santo confirms Sebald's status as one of the great modern writers who divined and expressed the invisible connections that determine our lives

After Nature W.G. Sebald, 2011-12-07 After Nature W G Sebald's first literary work now translated into English by Michael Hamburger explores the lives of three men connected by their restless questioning of humankind's place in the natural world From the efforts of each an order arises in places beautiful and comforting though more cruel too than the previous state of ignorance The first figure is the great German Renaissance painter Matthias Grünewald The second is the Enlightenment botanist explorer Georg Steller who accompanied Bering to the Arctic The third is the author himself who describes his wanderings among landscapes scarred by the wrecked certainties of previous ages After Nature introduces many of the themes that W G Sebald explored in his subsequent books A haunting vision of the waxing and waning tides of birth and devastation that lie behind and before us it confirms the author's position as one of the most profound and original writers of our time
