Global Hakka Jessieca Leo, 2015-08-25 In Global Hakka Hakka Identity in the Remaking Jessieca Leo offers a needed update on Hakka history and a reassessment of Hakka identity in the global and transnational contexts Leo gives fresh insights into concepts such as ethnicity identity Han Chineseness overseas Chinese and migration in relation to Hakka identity Globalization transnationalism deterritorialization and migration drive the rapid transformation and reformation of Hakka identity to the point of no return Dehakalization through cultural adaptation or genetic transfer has created an elastic identity in the global Hakka and different kinds of Hakka communities around the world Jessieca Leo convincingly shows that the concept of being Hakka in the twenty first century is better referred to as Hakkaness a quality determined by lifestyle and personal choices Among the Chinese tradition long resisted the idea of migration In practice however there were many layers of adaptation to different circumstances The Hakka have been exceptional in having always been conscious of their migratory successes This book explores with great sensitivity how Hakka history outside China influences the way they respond to the new global environment Combining careful scholarship with self discovery Jessieca Leo captures the processes by which one group of Chinese became migrants who consider migration as normal Her fascinating and original work takes the study of the Hakka to a higher level and offers fresh insights for understanding how other migratory Chinese are transforming tradition today
