Departmental annual report 2010-11 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs

Committee, 2012-04-13 Despite the impressive performance of the Foreign and Commonwealth Office in representing the UK's interests across the globe with what is in Governmental terms a particularly small budget the Foreign Affairs Committee believes that the FCO is under funded This situation has been exacerbated by the Spending Review 2010 and the lack of detail provided by the FCO and the BBC World Service as to exactly how the spending reductions target will be met is disappointing There are concerns about the steps taken by the FCO to adjust to its reduced budget reductions in the deployment of UK based staff overseas and the optimistic planned programme of property sales will have a detrimental impact on the ability of the UK to protect its interests overseas The establishment of the European External Action Service EEAS will place a further strain on the FCO's resources The Committee welcomes the appointment of Lord Williams of Baglan to the post of International Trustee with responsibility for the BBC World Service but reiterates its belief that a formal concordat governing the World Service's budget and output should be drawn up setting out the World Service's independence from budgetary pressures elsewhere in the BBC The budget cuts faced by the British Council will lead to the Council becoming a substantially different organisation by the end of the Spending Review period The greater emphasis that the British Council will place on commercial activity risks a diminution of the UK's influence and soft power Media Hot and Cold Nicole Starosielski, 2021-10-04 In Media Hot and Cold Nicole Starosielski examines the cultural dimensions of temperature to theorize the ways heat and cold can be used as a means of communication subjugation and control Diving into the history of thermal media from infrared cameras to thermostats to torture sweatboxes Starosielski explores the many meanings and messages of temperature During the twentieth century heat and cold were broadcast through mass thermal media Today digital thermal media such as bodily air conditioners offer personalized forms of thermal communication and comfort Although these new media promise to help mitigate the uneven effects of climate change Starosielski shows how they can operate as a form of biopower by determining who has the ability to control their own thermal environment In this way thermal media can enact thermal violence in ways that reinforce racialized colonial gendered and sexualized hierarchies By outlining how the control of temperature reveals power relations Starosielski offers a framework to better understand the dramatic transformations of hot and cold media in the twenty first century The History of Broadcasting in the United Kingdom: Volume V: Competition

Channel 4 Maggie Brown, 2021-05-20 This book covers a dramatic decade in the fortunes of Britain's quirkiest broadcaster It opens in 2009 with the realisation that Channel 4's biggest money spinner Big Brother had become a toxic asset and would have to be discarded at the same time as advertising revenues were shrinking in the wake of the 2008 financial crash Maggie Brown's compelling narrative which draws on interviews with key players in Channel 4's story and unique access to the broadcaster's archives takes us inside the boardroom battles changes in senior management and commissioning teams interventions by the media regulator Ofcom and the channel's response to a rapidly changing media and political landscape Brown describes how the channel under its new chief executive David Abraham successfully fought off the threat of privatisation which became a reality after the Conservatives general election victory in 2015 The price for remaining publicly funded was a substantial relocation of Channel 4's operations with Leeds announced in 2018 as a new regional hub The Channel 4 story is also one of ambitious and innovative programming with a new director of content Jay Hunt instigating radical changes in commissioning and scheduling Brown traces programming hits and losses during this period with the departure to competitors of celebrity chefs Black Mirror and Charlie Brooker horse racing and Formula 1 and a reappraisal of the remit of institutions such as Channel 4 News and Film 4 But there were successes too with the 2012 Paralympics helping to restore a public service sheen and new programmes such as Gogglebox in 2013 connecting with younger audiences and in 2016 the coup of taking The Great British Bake Off from its home at the BBC
