Pettey, R. Barton Palmer, 2019-05-16 This collection presents new essays in the complex field of French literary adaptation Using a variety of textual and interpretive approaches it sheds light on issues of gender sexuality class politics and social conventions while acknowledging a range of contexts from the commercial to the archival and the aesthetic The chapters written by eminent international scholars run chronologically from The Count of Monte Cristo through Proust and Bonjour Tristesse to Philippe Djian's Oh adapted for the screen as Elle Collectively they fill a need for contemporary discussions on the significance of France's literary representations in the history of global cinema Publishing Africa in French Ruth Bush, 2016 The history of post war writing in French has tended to separate African literature from French metropolitan literary production The same separation resonates in today's global French literary marketplace still dominated by Parisian publishing houses and metropolitan literary kudos This study historicises the aesthetic and socio economic implications of that evident asymmetry Archival research combines with literary analysis to explore the mediations that defined and legitimated notions of language authorship and literary value during the decolonizing vingt glorieuses Revealing known and less known connections between institutions such as Presence Africaine Editions du Seuil Gallimard and the Association descrivains de la mer et de l'outre mer the author argues that a contested and variegated African literary presence was widely dispersed across the metropolitan publishing scene in this period These material aspects of book production and distribution are inextricably entangled with ongoing debates over the representation of Africa in words Authors whose work is considered in detail include Abdoulaye Sadjou Cheikh Hamidou Kane Christine Garnier Malick Fall Chinua Achebe and Peter Abrahams Publishing Africa in French uses an innovative interdisciplinary methodology to contribute fresh insights and new material to current concerns in French Studies African Studies the sociology of literature and book history
