Beyond The Icarus Factor Releasing The Free Spirit Of Boys

William J. Thompson

Beyond The Icarus Factor Releasing The Free Spirit Of Boys:

Beyond the Icarus Factor Richard Hawley, 2008-02-12 A call to reconsider the place of boys in the family schools and community institutions that rob them of their inborn vitality and creativity Argues that boys have a unique free spirit nature and that efforts to alter or suppress it lead to profound unhappiness pathology or startling compulsions Demands another approach to societal expectations one that values and promotes the daring creativity of boys Richard Hawley s many years as headmaster of a boys school have convinced him that boys do indeed have a unique intrinsic and inalienable free spirit nature He sees deep flaws in the way we as parents educators and community members alter or suppress that true nature in order to turn boys into men that fit our societal template Hawley argues that the model man in our society while seemingly successful in his role may yet be unhappy in his life The very elements that we strip away from a boy s natural tendencies are the sources of spirituality and vitality that can give his life both meaning and satisfaction Without these he is lost to his essential nature A new approach is needed says Hawley and he goes to the roots of Western theology and philosophy to locate what has gone wrong and how those consequences might be addressed He sounds the clarion call to unleash promote and celebrate the seemingly dangerous pursuits that reflect the creativity and daring nature of boys Fantasy and imagination must trump cognition and problem solving We must not hold our boys back with our fears of failure but give them the tools and support they need to create wings good enough to fly wherever they wish to go

The Art of Conscious Parenting

Jeffrey L. Fine, 2009-09-28 A new approach to creating rediscovering and renewing the intimate bonds between parents and children Explains the importance of bonding with your child in utero and the physical and mental preparation needed even before conception Shows how green parenting breast feeding contact with nature and low tech creativity can enhance your child s life The Art of Conscious Parenting won the 2010 Gold Nautilus Award for the best Parenting Childcare book The Nautilus Awards recognize books that promote spiritual growth conscious living and positive social change while at the same time stimulating the imagination and offer the reader new possibilities for a better life and a better world Our first days and months of life are critical in forming the attitudes we bring into adulthood and in structuring the very roots of our personality Simple bonding techniques long forgotten in our modern world but stemming from the age old customs of indigenous peoples are at the core of a new model of conscious parenting that can produce happy and well adjusted children These practices also help parents experience an increased joy and intimacy both with their child and with each other Based on obstetric and psychological evidence Jeffrey and Dalit Fine reveal how bonding begins in utero and that the physical and mental preparation of both the father and mother even before conception sets the tone for the future well being of the child They show how sustained physical contact and simple ways of consciously interacting with your infant eye contact with the newborn baby wearing instead of stroller use and co sleeping have an observable positive effect They also show that the green parenting practices of breast feeding contact with nature and simple low tech creative play not only provide a more hands on and intimate approach to parenting but also are more economical and environmentally sustainable From in utero bonding through the challenges and joys of consciously interacting with your growing child this book will help parents rediscover and apply the natural art of conscious parenting French XX Bibliography, Issue 61 William J.
