New Canadian Library Janet Friskney, 2015-05-07 In the mid 1950s much Canadian literature was out of print making it relatively inaccessible to readers including those studying the subject in schools and universities When English professor Malcolm Ross approached Toronto publisher Jack McClelland in 1952 to propose a Canadian literary reprint series it was still the accepted wisdom among publishers that Canadian literature was of insufficient interest to the educational market to merit any great publishing risks Eventually convinced by Ross that a latent market for Canadian literary reprints did indeed exist McClelland Stewart launched the New Canadian Library NCL series in 1958 with Ross as its general editor In 2008 the NCL will celebrate a half century of publication In New Canadian Library Janet B Friskney takes the reader through the early history of the NCL series focusing on the period up to 1978 when Malcolm Ross retired as general editor A wealth of archival resources published reviews and the NCL volumes themselves are used to survey the working relationship between Ross and McClelland as well as the collaborative participation of those who through the middle decades of the twentieth century were committed to studying and nurturing Canada's literary heritage To place the New Canadian Library in its proper historical context Friskney examines the simultaneous development of Canadian literary studies as a legitimate area of research and teaching in academe and acknowledges the NCL as a milestone in Canadian publishing history Canadian Books in Print. Author and Title Index, 1975 Social Criticism Stephen Leacock, 1973-12-15 Stephen Leacock long celebrated as Canada's foremost humorist and social satirist has received little recognition for his considerable accomplishments as a serious thinker and social critic In fact Leacock was a professor of political economy and more than half of his writings addressed the pressing issues of his day This volume represents the neglected aspect of Leacock's career gathering together his writings on a range of subjects including imperialism education and culture religion and morality feminism prohibition and social justice The collection begins with Greater Canada an appeal which dates from 1907 when Leacock was a popular lecturer advancing the cause of imperialism Bowker points out that for Leacock imperialism was more a spiritual mission than a political agenda representing the opportunity to unite Canadians to inspire allegiance to a lofty tradition and thereby to combat the threat of materialism urbanism fragmentation and continentalism These themes resurface in subsequent essays culminating in The Unsolved Riddle of Social Justice which was published in 1920 Carefully selected and prefaced with an updated introduction to Leacock's life and work these essays contribute to our understanding of Leacock and illuminate his role as a major figure in Canadian intellectual history      Canadian Literature, Littérature Canadienne, 1959-1963 Inglis Freeman Bell, Susan W.
