Building Jewish in the Roman East Peter Richardson, 2005-02-01 Archaeology has unearthed the glories of ancient Jewish buildings throughout the Mediterranean But what has remained shrouded is what these buildings meant Building Jewish first surveys the architecture of small rural villages in the Galilee in the early Roman period before examining the development of synagogues as Jewish associations Finally Building Jewish explores Jerusalem's flurry of building activity under Herod the Great in the first century BCE Richardson's careful work not only documents the culture that forms the background to any study of Second Temple Judaism and early Christianity but he also succeeds in demonstrating how architecture itself like a text conveys meaning and thus directly illuminates daily life and religious thought and practice in the ancient world

Race in John's Gospel Andrew Benko, 2019-04-08 Directly or indirectly race makes many appearances in the Fourth Gospel What is the meaning of all this attention to ethnic labels Race in John's Gospel investigates how John reflects the racialized ideas current in its milieu challenging some and adapting others Ultimately John dismisses race as valid grounds for prejudice or discrimination devaluing the very criteria on which race is based The cumulative effect of this rhetoric is to undermine the category itself exposing earthly race as irrelevant and illusory However John s anthropology is layered and looks beyond this unimportant earthly level Above it John constructs a heavenly level of racial identity based on one s descent from either God or the devil
