Assessment For Educational Leaders:

Assessment for Educational Leaders W. James Popham, 2006 Written specifically for school administrators and those preparing to be school administrators this easy to read book contains only what is needed by leaders in today's assessment dominated world of educational accountability The content of the text is unabashedly practical addressed specifically to the assessment related needs of today's school administrators The real world orientation of the book based on the author's extensive and continuing work in the nation's public schools makes the book attractive to those instructors who teach assessment courses taken by prospective school administrators Students and in service school administrators will recognize that this text is not loaded with dry abstruse content about measurement and psychometric exotica This book deals with the real world measurement issues that today's educational leaders will most certainly encounter Everything School

Leaders Need to Know About Assessment W. James Popham, 2010-04-15 With plain language and practical examples Popham covers key understandings for school leaders including validity formative assessment interpreting test results instructional sensitivity and more Assessment in Education Shelleyann Scott, Donald E. Scott, Charles F.

Webber, 2015-10-20 This book provides key insights into how educational leaders can successfully navigate the turbulence of political debate surrounding leading student assessment and professionalised practice Given the highly politicised nature of assessment it addresses leaders and aspiring leaders who are open to being challenged willing to explore controversy and capable of engaging in informed critical discourse The book presents the macro concepts that these audiences must have to guide optimal assessment policy and practice Collectively the chapters highlight important assessment purposes and models including intended and unintended effects of assessment in a globalised context The book provides opportunities to explore cultural similarities and particularities It invites readers to challenge taken for granted assumptions about ourselves and colleagues in other settings The chapters highlight the cultural clashes that may occur when cross cultural borrowing of assessment strategies policies and tools takes place However authors also encourage sophisticated critical analyses of potential lessons that may be drawn from other contexts and systems Readers will encounter challenges from authors to deconstruct their assessment values beliefs and preconceptions Indeed one purpose of the book is to destabilise certainties about assessment that prevail and to embrace the assessment possibilities that can emerge from cognitive dissonance

Designing Performance Assessments for School Leader Readiness Margaret Terry Orr, Liz

Hollingworth, 2020-06-08 In face of increased scrutiny on the preparation of educational leaders this book provides a much needed resource exploring the role and use of authentic performance assessment for evaluating leader readiness and performance Framed by theory and research on school leader performance assessment Designing Performance Assessments for School Leader Readiness provides an in depth description of one fully tested performance assessment called the Performance Assessment for School Leaders PAL The authors explore how to assess four components of leadership proficiency developing a plan for an area of school improvement creating a professional learning culture among school staff supporting individual teacher development and engaging families and community in improving student learning This book provides real examples and practical guidance on designing and managing performance assessment for aspiring educational leaders and how the PAL can be used in regional state and local contexts Assessment for Learning Stephen Chappuis,2004 Helps administrators gain a clear vision of what excellence in assessment looks like and what it takes to achieve that vision The specific competencies leaders need to support assessment FOR learning are identified with activities and resources to help them learn and apply the skills Written for use by individuals or group study Publisher s website

Assessing Educational Leaders Douglas B. Reeves,2004 While plenty has been written about evaluating teacher performance there is a dearth of material related to evaluating educational administrators Douglas B Reeves a national expert on the topics of educational assessment and accountability writes a book that draws on the current research theory and best practices of leadership organizational performance and personnel evaluation The book would contain the information and tools necessary to evaluate all types of educational leaders and improve performance On Formative
