

American Atheists Essential Reading List

Books on this list have been selected to provide introductory information on topics of interest to Atheists. They address a wide range of important subjects such as the history of Atheist thought, the origins of modern religion, the role religion plays in modern culture and politics, Atheist parenting, and the ongoing battle for the separation between church and state. While these titles represent only a fraction of the books available from American Atheist Press, collectively they provide a broad overview of Atheist thought.
