Bedouin Law From Sinai And The Negev Justice Without Government:

Bedouin Law from Sinai and the Negev Clinton Bailey, 2009-11-24 Bedouin Law from Sinai and the Negev is the first comprehensive study of Bedouin law published in English including oral pre modern law The material for the book collected over the course of forty years of field work by Clinton Bailey one of the world s leading scholars on Bedouin culture is of permanent scholarly value Bailey shows how a nomadic desert dwelling society provides for its own law and order in the traditional absence of any centralized authority or law enforcement agency to protect it This comprehensive picture of Bedouin law offers readers a unique opportunity to understand Bedouin law by highlighting the close connection between the law and the culture from which it emerged

Indigenous Land Rights in Israel Morad Elsana, 2020-11-29 Introducing the Negev Bedouin land issue from the international indigenous land rights perspective this comparative study suggests options for the recognition of their land The book demonstrates that the Bedouin land dispossession like many indigenous peoples progressed through several phases that included eviction and displacement legislation and judicial decisions that support acts of dispossession and deny the Bedouin s traditional land rights Examining the Mawat legal doctrine on which the State and the Court rely on to deny Bedouin land rights this volume introduces the relevant international law protecting indigenous land rights and shows how the limitations of this law prevent any meaningful protection of Bedouin land rights In the second part of the work the Aborigines land in Australia is introduced as an example of indigenous peoples successful struggle for their traditional land rights The final chapter analyzes the basic elements of judicial recognition of the land and shows that the basic elements needed for Bedouin land recognition exist in the Israeli legal system Proposing practical recommendations for the recognition of Bedouin land this volume is a key resource to scholars and students interested in land rights international law comparative studies and the Middle East

Bedouin Culture in the Bible Clinton Bailey, 2018-10-23 The first contemporary analysis of Bedouin and biblical cultures sheds new light on biblical laws practices and Bedouin history Written by one of the world s leading scholars of Bedouin culture this groundbreaking book sheds new light on significant points of convergence between Bedouin and early Israelite cultures as manifested in the Hebrew Bible Bailey compares Bedouin and biblical sources identifying overlaps in economic activity material culture social values social organization laws religious practices and oral traditions He also examines the question of whether some early Israelites were indeed nomads as the Bible presents them offering a new angle on the controversy over their identity as well as new cultural perspectives to scholars of the Bible and the Bedouin alike

A Grammar of the Bedouin Dialects of Central and Southern Sinai Rudolf Erik De Jong, 2011-04-11 This book complements A Grammar of the Bedouin Dialects of the Northern Sinai Littoral Bridging the Linguistic Gap between the Eastern and Western Arab World Brill 2000 thus completing the author s description of Bedouin dialects of Sinai Earlier and new data are synthesized in a dialectometrical approach for a subdivision into eight groups and human rights issues surrounding the Bedouin Arab population in Israel's Naqab Negev desert With contributions from international scholars including United Nations officials the volume examines the economic and social rights of indigenous peoples within the context of the Israeli Palestinian conflict Indigenous Medicine Among the Bedouin in the Middle East

Yahel, 2024-10-07 Drawing on a wealth of ethnographic and historical sources Havatzelet Yahel offers an engaging and sometimes surprising history of Israel's policy toward Bedouin tribalism in the Negev desert in southern Israel The study opens with a detailed look at the 1940s and 1950s in the region which shaped the relationship between Israel and the Bedouin most notably Israel's effort to accommodate tribalism in collaboration with the sheikhs The story then shifts to the next stage in Israel's policymaking under the Military Administration in the 1960s and early 1970s. Although various forces were at work to break down tribal life, especially the hardship of prolonged droughts, nevertheless the pro-tribal policy won out in the end. Today Israel's policy toward the Bedouin focuses more on traditional tribal norms rather than promoting democratic individuals' values.

Desert in the Promised Land Yael Zerubavel, 2023-05-25

A complex and fascinating portrait of Israel, an engaging book that combines anthropology, culture, and history. Anita Shapira, author of Ben-Gurion: Father of Modern Israel. At once an ecological phenomenon and a cultural construction, the desert has varied associations within Zionist and Israeli culture. In the Judaic textual tradition, it evokes exile and punishment, yet it is also a site for origin myths, the divine presence, and sanctity. Secular Zionism developed its own spin on the duality of the desert as the romantic site of Jews' biblical roots that inspired the Hebrew culture, and as the barren land outside the Jewish settlements in Palestine, featuring them as an oasis of order and technological progress within a symbolic desert. Yael Zerubavel tells the story of the desert from the early twentieth century to the present, shedding light on romantic, mythical associations, settlement, and security concerns, environmental sympathies, and the commodifying tourist gaze. Drawing on literary narratives, educational texts, newspaper articles, tourist materials, films, popular songs, posters, photographs, and cartoons, Zerubavel reveals the complexities and contradictions that mark Israeli society's semiotics of space in relation to the Middle East and the central role of the besieged island trope in Israeli culture and politics.
