Artisans, Objects and Everyday Life in Renaissance Italy Paula Hohti Erichsen,2025-10-01 Did ordinary Italians have a Renaissance This book presents the first in depth exploration of how artisans and small local traders experienced the material and cultural Renaissance Drawing on a rich blend of sixteenth century visual and archival evidence it examines how individuals and families at artisanal levels such as shoemakers barbers bakers and innkeepers lived and worked managed their household economies and consumption socialised in their homes and engaged with the arts and the markets for luxury goods It demonstrates that although the economic and social status of local craftsmen and traders was relatively low their material possessions show how these men and women who rarely make it into the history books were fully engaged with contemporary culture cultural customs and the urban way of life There is a focus on Renaissance Siena a city that is rarely included in studies of the Italian Renaissance
