Illustrated Books of the Past Four Centuries New York Public Library, Frank Weitenkampf,1920 The Grand Finale Anton Wessels,2020-07-13 We often hear that we are living in apocalyptic times Wars like those in the Middle East are just more signs that the end is near That however is a misunderstanding of the message of the Bible and the Qur an The basic meaning of apocalypse is disclosure revelation bringing to light what is happening now and what has happened throughout all of history The apocalypse is not about making predictions about the future but about determining who bears responsibility for injustice in the world In that sense all times including ours are apocalyptic though in a different way than what is usually thought Since the devastating Greek conquest of the world by Alexander the Great there have been apocalyptic insights and revelatory readings of the whole Hebrew Bible The same is true of the New Testament with Rome as the world power then The same apocalyptic message is confirmed by the Qur an when the Byzantines and the Persians fought for mastery of the world The apocalyptic message is that God will put an end to the unjust dominion of violence money and lies God s kingdom will certainly arrive but not through violence after all there is no violence in God Diognetus Gothic and Renaissance Art in Nuremberg, 1300-1550 Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1986 A Magnificent Faith Bridget Heal,2017-08-04 A Magnificent Faith explains how and why Lutheranism a confession that derived its significance from the promulgation of God s Word became a visually magnificent faith a faith whose adherents sought to captivate Christians hearts and minds through seeing as well as through hearing Although Protestantism is no longer understood as an exclusively word based religion the paradigm of evangelical ambivalence towards images retains its power This is the first study to offer an account of the Reformation origins and subsequent flourishing of the Lutheran baroque of the rich visual culture that developed in parts of the Holy Roman Empire during the later seventeenth and early eighteenth centuries The volume opens with a discussion of the legacy of the Wittenberg Reformation Three sections then focus on the confessional devotional and magnificent image exploring turning points in Lutherans attitudes towards religious art Drawing on a wide variety of archival printed and visual sources from two of the Empire s most important Protestant territories Saxony the heartland of the Reformation and Brandenburg A Magnificent Faith shows the extent to which Lutheran culture was shaped by territorial divisions It traces the development of a theologically grounded aesthetic and argues that images became prominent vehicles for the articulation of Lutheran identity not only amongst theologians but also amongst laymen and women By examining the role of images in the Lutheran tradition as it developed over the course of two centuries A Magnificent Faith offers a new understanding of the relationship between Protestantism and the visual arts
