Breaking The Conspiracy Of Silence Christian Churches And The Global Aids Crisis:

Breaking the Conspiracy of Silence Donald E. Messer, 2004-01-01 A passionate and well articulated call to mission Messer charts steps for individuals congregations denominations and ecumenical agencies in a faithful response to the HIV AIDS

Theology in the Age of Global AIDS & HIV C. Trentaz, 2012-10-30 Trentaz proposes an inclusive complex framework for understanding the creation and maintenance of risk of contracting HIV AIDS takes a hard look at dominant theologies and proposes a new way of approaching a theo ethical response to the pandemic within a communal ethic of risk sharing privileging the voices of the marginalized

Uncommon Faithfulness Mary Shawn Copeland, LaReine-Marie Mosely, Albert J. Raboteau, 2009 An engaging study of black catholics their contributions to the Catholic church and the challenges they face These essays describe the experience of black Catholics in this country since their arrival in North America in the sixteenth century until the present day The essays highlight the difficulties black Catholics faced in their early attempts to join churches and enter religious communities their participation in the civil rights struggle and the challenges they face today as they seek full inclusion in the church whether in terms of liturgical practice or pastoral ministry

Love and Christian Ethics Frederick V. Simmons, Brian Sorrells, 2016 At the heart of Christian ethics is the biblical commandment to love God and to love one's neighbor as oneself But what is the meaning of love Scholars have wrestled with this question since the recording of the Christian gospels and in recent decades teachers and students of Christian ethics have engaged in vigorous debates about appropriate interpretations and implications of this critical norm In Love and Christian Ethics nearly two dozen leading experts analyze and assess the meaning of love from a wide range of perspectives Chapters are organized into three areas influential sources and exponents of Western Christian thought about the ethical significance of love perennial theoretical questions attending that consideration and the implications of Christian love for important social realities Contributors bring a richness of thought and experience to deliver unprecedentedly broad and rigorous analysis of this central tenet of Christian ethics and faith William Werpehowski provides an afterword on future trajectories for this research Love and Christian Ethics is sure to become a benchmark resource in the field

Vulnerability, Churches, and HIV Göran Gunner, 2009-01-01 The HIV pandemic has caused serious challenges for the Church as well as for theology The pandemic has brought enormous human suffering to individuals and has affected families and entire societies In this context churches need to listen and to learn and not least to respond to thereby mold their own actions and futures In so doing this book aims to enable churches to become more HIV and AIDS competent Vulnerability Churches and HIV includes two kinds of contributions First researchers present their thoughts about theology the church and HIV A pastoral letter from the bishops of the Church of Sweden provides a second perspective The letter makes recommendations to decision making bodies patent holders and decision makers in the pharmaceutical industry The letter also guides parishes and church workers Contributors editor Goran Gunner Musa W Dube Susanne Rappmann Kenneth R Overberg Edwina Ward and the bishops of the Church of Sweden The book is the first volume in the Church of Sweden Research Series That all may live! Chitando, Ezra, Mombo, Esther, Gunda, Masiwa Ragies, 2021-10-13 This volume of BiAS ERA is a Festschrift honouring Nyambura J Njoroge She is an outstanding woman theologian whose work straddles diverse fields and disciplines Inspired by her rich and impressive uvre in this volume friends and colleagues of her among them celebrities like Musa Dube Gerald West Fulata Moyo Ezra Chitando and others explore how religion and theology in diverse contexts can become more life giving Contributors from many countries and different continents explore themes such as African women s leadership theological education HIV AIDS lament the Bible and liberation adolescents and young women sexual diversity and others Collectively the volume expresses Nyambura s consistent commitment to the full liberation of all human beings in fulfilment of the gospel s promise that all may have life and have it to the full John 10 10 World Christianity Tan, Jonathan Y., Tran, Anh Q., 2016-04-13 What Can We Do? David Livermore, Terry D. Linhart, 2011-08-23 Too often these days youth hear about global issues such as poverty human trafficking and HIV AIDS but they don t get practical suggestions on how they can make a positive impact on these problems The reality is today s students will be leading the way in the workforce ministries and education in a few short years If they begin to understand their connection to the global community today just imagine the way they could contribute to improving these issues in future years What Can We Do offers youth workers an overview of pressing global issues along with realistic practical ways their youth ministries can respond By helping teens understand how their faith intersects with the struggles around the world these youth groups can have a lasting worldwide influence Respected educators and youth ministry veterans Dave Livermore and Terry Linhart give youth workers a thoughtful deep perspective on the pressing issues facing the world today while also offering creative solutions for youth groups to get involved and impact the lives of people all around the world Muslim and Catholic Responses to HIV and AIDS in Kenya Timothy James Carey, 2018-09-15 In the capital city of Nairobi Kenya African Catholic and Sunni Muslim leaders addressing HIV and AIDS are faced with a unique challenge On the one hand they are called to attend to the spiritual wellbeing of the infected individual on the other hand they are increasingly charged with serving as the stewards of the physical bodies of those negatively affected by such a physiologically debilitating and social stigmatized disease through certain identifiable interreligious traditions common to both faiths This book explores this development firsthand While conducting fieldwork in Nairobi Carey interviewed Muslim and Catholic leaders working in three areas HIV and AIDS prevention education and destigmatization These recorded observations and accounts help to illustrate that religious officials from within African Catholicism and Sunni Islam are attempting to provide the common inter religious traditions of mercy hospitality and justice in a holistic manner for those living with the virus in the city The research that produced this book involved six weeks of fieldwork during the summer of 2014 to help fill in the interstices between anthropological sociological and ethnographic accounts provided by other leading academics in their respective fields It presumed that religious traditions in Kenya exhibit a susceptibility to culture and context and a practical openness to its social environment which then affords this particular work a unique theological perspective in its attempt to identify and analyze patterns of social behavior and religious organization Development and Politics from Below B. Bompani, M. Frahm-Arp, 2010-07-16

Religion is playing an increasingly central role in African political and developmental life This book offers an empirical and theoretical reflection on the relationships between religion politics and development in Africa the meanings of religion in non Western contexts and the way that is embedded in the everyday life of people in Africa
