corollary between the westward moving American pioneer and the eastward moving Russian peasant Sabol examines how and why perceptions of the Sioux and Kazakhs as ostensibly uncivilized peoples and the Northern Plains and the Kazakh Steppe as uninhabited regions that ought to be settled reinforced American and Russian government sedentarization policies and land allotment programs In addition he illustrates how both countries encountered problems and conflicts with local populations while pursuing their national missions of colonization comparing the various forms of Sioux and Kazakh martial political social and cultural resistance evident throughout the nineteenth century Presenting a nuanced in depth history and contextualizing US and Russian colonialism in a global framework The Touch of Civilization will be of significant value to students and scholars of Russian history American and Native American history and the history of colonization Bluecoat and Pioneer John Benton Hart,2019-01-17 In 1918 urged on by his son Harry John Benton Hart began to tell stories of a three year period in his youth He recalled his days as a trooper in the Eleventh Kansas Cavalry fighting in Missouri and on the frontier and his time as a civilian jack of all trades doing risky work for the U S Army on the Wyoming Montana Bozeman Trail in the middle of the Indian resistance campaign known as Red Cloud s War Once started John Benton Hart became an enthusiastic raconteur describing events with an almost cinematic vividness while his son an aspiring writer documented his father s testimony in what became several manuscripts Compiled and reproduced here edited by historian John Hart John Benton Hart s great grandson this memoir is a singular document of living history As a young Kansas cavalryman John Benton Hart participated in two momentous episodes of the Civil War era Sterling Price s Missouri Expedition of 1864 including the Battle of Westport and such engagements in the Plains Indian Wars as the Battle of Platte Bridge in July 1865 and the Hayfield Fight near Fort C F Smith in 1867 In the engaging style of a natural storyteller Hart re creates these events as he experienced them giving readers a rare glimpse at moments of historical import from the point of view of the ordinary soldier In arresting detail he also tells of crossing the Plains as a bullwhacker carrying the mail between the beleaguered forts on the Bozeman Trail and befriending scout Jim Bridger and Mountain Crow Chief Blackfoot Framed and supplemented with the editor s biographical historical and explanatory notes Hart s memoir offers a new perspective on events long fixed in the historical imagination As history writ large or on a personal scale Bluecoat and Pioneer tells a remarkable story
