International Handbook of Urban Policy H. S. Geyer,2011 This important Handbook reveals that most urban growth takes place in the less developed world and much of it represents over urbanization that is urbanization in which most migrants cannot effectively compete for employment cannot find adequate shelter and do not have the means to feed themselves properly Yet compared to rural poverty urban poverty is widely regarded as the lesser of the two evils H S Geyer and his contributors highlight the enormous challenges posed by urbanization to decision makers at all levels of government This final volume in a series of three original reference works covers four broad themes including urban growth patterns spatial issues policy issues and urban growth determinants The chapters have been written not only for the advanced student and academics but also with undergraduate students in mind The Handbook will appeal to scholars and researchers interested in international urban development issues Innovative Technologies for Enhancing Knowledge Access in Academic Libraries Masenya, Tlou Maggie,2022-06-24 An increasing number of academic libraries worldwide are adopting innovative technologies in creating organizing storing managing disseminating preserving and enhancing access to their vital knowledge in order to adapt to the changing library environment and to stay relevant in the digital world This transition necessitates a need for best practices and reimagined strategies of implementing innovative technologies to ensure sustainable knowledge access and increase knowledge sharing Innovative Technologies for Enhancing Knowledge Access in Academic Libraries aims to provide best practices innovative strategies theoretical frameworks conceptual frameworks and empirical research findings regarding the application of emerging and innovative technologies in managing preserving and enhancing knowledge access in academic libraries worldwide Covering a range of topics such as artificial intelligence knowledge organization records management and library services this reference work is ideal for librarians researchers scholars practitioners academicians instructors and students Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove,Geoff Harris,2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it
