
Army OCS Military History Exam

What is the definition of Military History - Answer Military history is the record of all activities of all armed forces (including armies, navies, and air forces) in war and peace.

Define the 8 activities in the study of military history & definitions - Answer (1) battles and campaigns.

(2) strategy and tactics.

(3) doctrine and training.

(4) organizations.

(5) logistics.

(6) the military and society.

(7) weapons and technology.

(8) military leaders (great and not so great).

Define Operational Military History - Answer This is the oldest kind of military history. It is also the oldest kind of history. It includes battles, campaigns, tactics, and planning. Operational military history is also the most popular type of military history because it focuses on crisis and the central mission of the military-waging war. EXAMPLE: Thucydides, The Peloponnesian War

Define Institutional Military History - Answer This type deals with preparing for war, including doctrine (how to fight), training, and organization. It also covers how the Army has influenced society and how a democratic society has influenced the Army. Branch history, which is especially relevant to this level of instruction, is a form of institutional history. EXAMPLE: Russell Weigley, A History of the United States Army.

Define Biographical Military History - Answer This is the study of military lives. Traditionally, military biography has dealt with the lives of generals, admirals, and other senior leaders, and heroes. More recent biographies have dealt with ordinary soldiers. At whatever level, biography offers insights into leadership, decision-making, and military professionalism because it describes and analyzes how subjects developed, both on and off the battlefield. EXAMPLE: Carlo D'Este, Patton: A Genius for War.

Define Social and technological Military History - Answer This is the most recent approach to military history and deals with a wide variety of topics that provide the context for military operations, such as logistics, command and control, technological innovation and evolution, and social and psychological aspects of military life. EXAMPLE: Edwin E. Moise, Tonkin Gulf and the Escalation of the Vietnam War.
