A Guide to the Collection of the Asian Library Ramon Magsaysay Award Foundation. Asian Library,1970 Patriots and Propaganda Bolin Hu,2025-10-01 In the turbulent years of China s War of Resistance against Japan 1931 1945 a unique and complex narrative unfolded far from the battlefields in Australia Patriots and Propaganda Chinese Australians and the politics of loyalty 1930s 1940s delves into the intricate web of Chinese wartime propaganda efforts revealing how the Chinese Kuomintang KMT and Chinese Australian communities mobilised support for China s struggle against Japanese aggression Patriots and Propaganda uncovers the multifaceted relationships between China Australia and the Chinese Australian diaspora highlighting the political racial and class dynamics that shaped these interactions Bolin Hu explores the pivotal role of Chinese language newspapers and schools in preserving Chinese heritage and loyalty the intense political rivalries within the Chinese Australian community and the profound impact of memorial services and fundraising campaigns on fostering Chinese patriotism and community cohesion Hu also brings to light the diverse contributions of various Chinese Australian groups including leftists women and Australian born Chinese to China s war effort and the fierce propaganda battles between Chinese and Japanese authorities on Australian soil Patriots and Propaganda offers a nuanced exploration of the socio political dynamics within the Chinese Australian community while challenging the traditional narrative of distant allies presenting new evidence and perspectives on the Sino Australian relationship during a critical period in history Facing North Volume 1 David Goldsworthy,2012-11-27 Facing North is the first substantial history of Australia s relations with Asia since Federation Volume 1 chronicles Australian Asian relations from 1901 to the 1970s and Volume 2 in preparation will carry the story through the last decades of the century just ended Both make extensive use of official government sources and of the private collections of ministers and public servants Debate about engagement with Asia is not a recent phenomenon Ever since Federation Australians in public life have expressed diverse views on our foreign policy and on areas with major domestic consequences such as immigration In this volume Australia faces up to many changes in Asia Japan an expanding military power during the 1930s becomes an economic partner during the 1950s The Pacific war and decolonisation open Australia s regional horizons and the Vietnam war necessitates active engagement with Southeast Asia Failure to recognise China during the 1950s and 1960s shifts after 1972 to a vigorous search for relationship Other key developments include the initiation of the Colombo Plan in the 1950s and gradual abolition in the 1960s and 1970s of the White Australia Policy The story is not a simple one of smoothly evolving engagement The challenges presented by Asian realities have evoked complex responses which this history analyses and clarifies It explains the major changes in official Australian policies towards Asia together with the broader cultural challenges Facing North tells us what was done in the past and why It is essential reading for anyone who wants to better understand Australia's present relations with Asian countries and our future choices Australia-China Relations post 1949 Yi Wang, 2016-04-08 This book challenges the common perceptions of Australian dependence upon great power allies in the conduct of its foreign relations through a critical examination of Australia's relations with the People's Republic of China The author focuses on the economic and political dimensions of the policy making process from the founding of the PRC in 1949 to the present era against an analytical framework that takes into account both internal and external factors in the formulation and implementation of Australian foreign policy Informed by political science and international relations the book differs from the conventional literature on Sino Australian relations which has either focused on pure economic analysis or concentrated on chronicling historical events The author weaves theoretical insights from political science and international relations into the historical analysis while seeking to examine the interplay between political and economic factors over time in shaping policy outcomes The book draws not only on primary and secondary sources but also on information and insights obtained from interviews with a vast array of direct participants in the policy process including almost all the former ambassadors from both China and Australia covering the entire period of the diplomatic relationship As a result the book breaks new ground especially from the Hawke era onwards revealing hitherto overlooked details of interest in the policy process Mud Map to AUKUS Philip Du Rhone, 2021-11-29 How does the 2021 Indo Pacific security arrangement Australia has entered into with the United Kingdom and the United States fit into Australia's historical approach to its defence and foreign affairs policies What experiences in the past have shaped Australia's attitude to defence Have these policies been influenced or even dictated by the public's opinions and beliefs or have they been formulated mainly by politicians diplomats specialists and commentators and imposed on the populace albeit gently or perhaps stealthily This book looks closely at the election campaigns of 1943 1946 and 1949 when the threat of attack and even invasion had been very real and imminent and the security of the country was uppermost in many people's minds at how the political leaders and commentators presented their opinions and ideas on future national defence and foreign policy to a public that may or may not have been interested and at how they argued it out amongst themselves testing the waters feeling their way into a new world order And so how much of Australia's defence and foreign affairs stance is based on its history its geographical position and the political nature of its neighbours leading to the conclusion that it will be that way forever and thereby clearly definable The Library Catalogs of the Hoover

Immigration Policy from 1970 to the Present Rachel Stevens, 2016-02-19 This book examines national debates on immigration asylum seekers and guest worker programs from 1970 to the present Over the past 45 years contemporary immigration has had a profound impact throughout North America Europe and Australasia yet the admission of ethnically diverse immigrants was far from inevitable In the midst of significant social change policymakers grappled with fundamental questions what is the purpose of immigration in an age of mass mobility Which immigrants should be selected and potentially become citizens and who should be excluded How should immigration be controlled in an era of universal human rights and non discrimination Stevens provides an in depth case study comparison of two settler societies Australia and the United States while drawing parallels with Europe Canada and New Zealand Though contemporary immigration history that focuses on one national setting is well established this book is unique because it actively compares how a number of societies debated vexing immigration policy challenges The book also explores the ideas values and principles that underpin this contentious area of public policy and in doing so permits a broader understanding of contemporary immigration than outlining policies alone
