Autobiographical Sketches Mathew Carey, 1970 Autobiographical Sketches (Classic Reprint) Annie Wood Besant, 2015-06-30 Excerpt from Autobiographical Sketches I am so often asked for references to some pamphlet or journal in which may be found some outline of my life and the enquiries are so often couched in terms of such real kindness that I have resolved to pen a few brief autobiographical sketches which may avail to satisfy friendly questioners and to serve in some measure as defence against unfair attack On October 1st 1847 I made my appearance in this vale of tears little Pheasantina as I was irreverently called by a giddy aunt a pet sister of my mother's Just at that time my father and mother were staying within the boundaries of the City of London so that I was born well within the sound of Bow bells Though born in London however full three quarters of my blood are Irish My dear mother was a Morris the spelling of the name having been changed from Maurice some five generations back and I have often heard her tell a quaint story illustrative of that family pride which is so common a feature of a decayed Irish family She was one of a large family and her father and mother gay handsome and extravagant had wasted merrily what remained to them of patrimony I can remember her father well for I was fourteen years of age when he died A bent old man with hair like driven snow splendidly handsome in his old age hot tempered to passion at the lightest provocation loving and wrath in quick succession About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Between
