Ap The Story Of News:

Breaking News Associated Press, 2007-05-04 Uses personal accounts archival materials interviews and Pulitzer Prize winning photographs to document AP's groundbreaking role in providing the news to the international and American press

AP, the Story of News; Illustrated by Henry C. Barrow Gramling, Oliver, 1940 Encyclopedia of Journalism Christopher H. Sterling, 2009-09-23 Written in a clear and accessible style that would suit the needs of journalists and scholars alike this encyclopedia is highly recommended for large news organizations and all schools of journalism Starred Review Library Journal Journalism permeates our lives and shapes our thoughts in ways we've long taken for granted Whether we listen to National Public Radio in the morning view the lead story on the Today show read the morning newspaper headlines stay up to the minute with Internet news browse grocery store tabloids receive Time magazine in our mailbox or watch the nightly news on television journalism pervades our daily activities The six volume Encyclopedia of Journalism covers all significant dimensions of journalism including print broadcast and Internet journalism U S and international perspectives history technology legal issues and court cases ownership and economics The set contains more than 350 signed entries under the direction of leading journalism scholar Christopher H Sterling of The George Washington University In the A to Z volumes 1 through 4 both scholars and journalists contribute articles that span the field's wide spectrum of topics from design editing advertising and marketing to libel censorship First Amendment rights and bias to digital manipulation media hoaxes political cartoonists and secrecy and leaks Also covered are recently emerging media such as podcasting blogs and chat rooms The last two volumes contain a thorough listing of journalism awards and prizes a lengthy section on journalism freedom around the world an annotated bibliography and key documents The latter edited by Glenn Lewis of CUNY Graduate School of Journalism and York College CUNY comprises dozens of primary documents involving codes of ethics media and the law and future changes in store for journalism education Key Themes Consumers and Audiences Criticism and Education Economics Ethnic and Minority Journalism Issues and Controversies Journalist Organizations Journalists Law and Policy Magazine Types Motion Pictures Networks News Agencies and Services News Categories News Media U S News Media World Newspaper Types News Program Types Online Journalism Political Communications Processes and Routines of Journalism Radio and Television Technology Newshawks in Berlin Larry Heinzerling, Randy Herschaft, 2024-03-05 Runner Up 2025 AJHA Book Award American Journalism Historians Association After the Nazis came to power in Germany in 1933 the Associated Press AP brought news about life under the Third Reich to tens of millions of American readers The AP was America's most important source for foreign news but to continue reporting under the Nazi regime the agency made both journalistic and moral compromises Its reporters and photographers in Berlin endured onerous censorship complied with anti-Semitic edicts and faced accusations of spreading pro-Nazi propaganda Yet despite restrictions pressures and concessions AP's Berlin newshawks provided more than a thousand U S newspapers with extensive coverage of the Nazi campaigns to conquer Europe and annihilate the continent's Jews. Newsawks in Berlin reveals how the Associated Press covered Nazi Germany from its earliest days through the aftermath of World War II. Larry Heinzerling and Randy Herschaft accessed previously classified government documents, plumbed diary entries, letters, and memos, and reviewed thousands of published stories and photos to examine what the AP reported and what it left out. Their research uncovers fierce internal debates about how to report in a dictatorship, and it reveals decisions that sometimes prioritized business ambitions over journalistic ethics. The book also documents the AP's coverage of the Holocaust and its unveiling. Featuring comprehensive research and a memorable cast of characters, this book illuminates how the dilemmas of reporting on Nazi Germany remain familiar for journalists reporting on authoritarian regimes today. AP Oliver Gramling, 1940 The Future of News Philip S. Cook, Douglas Gomery, Lawrence W. Lichty, 1992-04 Analyzing these and other trends, The Future of News offers a thoughtful and provocative preview of the media's role in the coming century.

Online News and the Public Michael B. Salwen, Bruce Garrison, Paul D. Driscoll, 2004-12-13 This book explores the growing phenomenon of online news from a variety of perspectives, identifying trends in online news and presenting a collection of original research investigations about the newest medium of mass communication. News for All the People Juan Gonzalez, Joseph Torres, 2011-12-23 A new sweeping narrative history of American news media that puts race at the center of the story. From the earliest colonial newspapers to the Internet age, America's racial divisions have played a central role in the creation of the country's media system, just as the media has contributed to and every so often combated racial oppression. News for All the People reveals how racial segregation distorted the information Americans received from the mainstream media. It unearths numerous examples of how publishers and broadcasters actually fomented racial violence and discrimination through their coverage. And it chronicles the influence federal media policies exerted in such conflicts. It depicts the struggle of Black, Latino, Asian, and Native American journalists who fought to create a vibrant yet little-known alternative democratic press, and then, beginning in the 1970s, forced open the doors of the major media companies. Written in an exciting, story-driven style and replete with memorable portraits of journalists, both famous and obscure, News for All the People weaves back and forth between the corporate and government leaders who built our segregated media system, such as Herbert Hoover, whose Federal Radio Commission eagerly awarded a license to a notorious Ku Klux Klan organization in the nation's capital, and those who rebelled against that system. Based on years of original archival research and up to the minute reporting, and written by two veteran journalists and leading advocates for a more inclusive and democratic media system, News for All the People should become the standard history of American media. Military Review, 2008 Professional Journal of the United States Army, 2008
