Apocalypse Not Everything You Know About 2012 Nostradamus And The Rapture Is Wrong:

Apocalypse Not John Greer, 2011-09-15 For almost 3 000 years apocalypse prophecies have convinced people all over the world that the future is about to give them the world they want instead of the world they've got. All the end time prophecies splashed across the media in every age have had something else in common: every one of them has been wrong. Apocalypse Not is a lively and engaging survey of predictions about the end of the world along with the failed dreams and nightmares that have clustered around them. Among the stories highlighted in Apocalypse Not are the birth of the apocalypse meme out of archaic star myths in the ancient Middle East, the failed end time prophecies of Nostradamus, Mother Shipton and other famous prophets, the long and murky road from the Great Pyramid to today's Rapture beliefs, and the real origins of the belief in apocalypse in 2012: hint, it's not originally Mayan at all.

The Falling Rate of Learning and the Neoliberal Endgame David Blacker, 2013-12-13 The current neoliberal mutation of capitalism has evolved beyond the days when the wholesale exploitation of labor underwrote the world system's expansion. While normal business profits plummet and theft by finance rises, capitalism now shifts into a mode of elimination that targets most of us along with our environment as waste products awaiting managed disposal. The education system is caught in the throes of this eliminationism across a number of fronts: crushing student debt, impatience with student expression, the looting of vestigial public institutions, and finally, as coup de grace, an abandonment of the historic ideal of universal education. Education reform is powerless against eliminationism and is at best a mirage that diverts oppositional energies. The very idea of education activism becomes a comforting fiction. Educational institutions are strapped into the eliminationist project, the neoliberal endgame, in a way that admits no escape, even despite the heroic gestures of a few. The school systems that capitalism has built and directed over the last two centuries are fated to go down with the ship. It is rational, therefore, for educators to cultivate a certain pessimism. Should we despair? Why, yes, we should, but cheerfully, as confronting elimination mortality is, after all, our common fate. There is nothing and everything to do in order to prepare.

Apocalypse Not John Michael Greer, 2011-09-06 New Agers count off the days until the Mayan calendar ends in 2012. Evangelical Christians look for the Antichrist and long for the Rapture. Extropians dream of the Singularity when super intelligent computers will abolish all human limits to progress. Doomers stockpile freeze-dried food as they wait for civilization to crash and burn. Why are we waiting for Armageddon? Almost since the beginning of civilization, an insatiable willingness to believe has driven people to dream of the apocalypse that will replace the world they've got with the one they've always wanted. All of these predictions have one thing in common: every one of them has been wrong. From brilliant seers and religious visionaries to conspiracy theorists and fundamentalists, Apocalypse Not exposes prophecies of doom.

Kollaps David Jonstad, 2012-04-02 Att civilisationer kommer och går i knappast ett kontroversiellt påställe. Romarriket och mayaimperiet är populära historiska exempel. Men att vår egen industriella civilisation har ett bestämt datum för sin svårare acceptera. Likväl genomslår kollaps av detta faktum. Genom att titta på såväl nutid som historia förklarar David Jonstad en bild av vad som för en civilisation påfaller. En av de huvudsakliga orsakerna tycks vara komplexitet. Ju större komplexitet desto större risk för kollaps. Tre grundpelare bär upp den industriella civilisationen: energi, ekologi och ekonomi. Det är storheter som kan nätecknas av stor komplexitet och som dessutom är tätt sammanbundna med varandra. När den billiga fossila energin som har lett till systemet bärjar sina när den ekonomiska tillväxten inte längre når på och när klimatet hettas upp är resultatet en kollapsartad krutdurk. Det är skrämmande. Vi måste anpassa oss till en värld utan verskott på billig energi med lågre levnadsstandard och hårdnad konkurrens om resurserna. Men också hoppfullt. Människan är anpassningsbar och har genom historien visat upp en enastående förmåga att genom samarbete, kreativitet och solidaritet skapa goda liv även i svåra tider. The Real History of the End of the World Sharan

Newman, 2010-04-06. From the author of The Real History Behind the Templars the origins and stories behind end of the world predictions throughout history from Revelations to 2012. In entertaining and sharp prose historian Sharan Newman explores theories of world destruction from ancient times up to the present day theories which reveal as much about human nature as they do about the predominant historical scientific and religious beliefs of the time. Readers will find answers to the following end of times questions: Did the Mayans really say the world will end in December 2012? How have the signs in the New Testament Book of Revelations been interpreted over the years? How did ancient Egyptians, Norse and Chinese think the world would end? When did Nostradamus predict that the last days would come? Does the I Ching reference 2012? Why didn't the world end in Y2K? Are meteors, global warming, super volcanoes and the threat of nuclear war signs that the end is near?

The Rapture, One-World Government and the "Great Tribulation" Luis Muñoz, 2013-08-13. This book explains in great detail and exceptional clarity the issues related to the rapture of the Church, the government of the Antichrist, the great tribulation and all the apocalyptic judgments which God will pour out upon the wicked world. The rapture of the Church will bring about the global collapse of the economic, political and religious institutions of the world. At that moment of monumental crisis, humanity will quickly look for a leader willing to put the world back together, offer them peace and security. The world will host a false prince of peace called the Antichrist. He will elate the masses by telling them what they want to hear. However, he will push humanity to the deepest levels of degradation: vice, immorality, crime, war, violence and rebellion against God. He will corrupt the social and moral order and as a result, billions of people will die. He will plunge the world into spiritual darkness and lead humanity astray. The Antichrist's empire shall devour the whole earth, trample it and break it in pieces. Daniel 7:23 NKJV. This will be a period characterized by widespread wars which will bring death to billions of people. For in those days there will be tribulation such as has not been since the beginning of the creation which God created until this time nor ever shall be. Mark 13:19 NKJV. During this period, 25 and 33 per cent of the world population will die in two major wars. If these conflicts were to happen in our time, 3.56 billion people would die. However, before the Antichrist begins, God will take out of this world all those who believe in Christ. Seven years later, the Lord Jesus will return to
