

Universal Planning (UP)

This section describes the process of universal planning, which is the first step in the design of a building. It is a process that involves the identification of the needs of all users, including those with disabilities, and the design of a building that meets those needs. The process is described in the following steps:

Design Process

The design process is the second step in the design of a building. It involves the development of a design that meets the needs of all users, including those with disabilities. The process is described in the following steps:
