Architecture Theory Since 1968:

Architecture Theory since 1968 K. Michael Hays, 2000-02-28 An anthology of the pivotal theoretical texts that have defined architecture culture in the late twentieth century In the discussion of architecture there is a prevailing sentiment that since 1968 cultural production in its traditional sense can no longer be understood to rise spontaneously as a matter of social course but must now be constructed through ever more self conscious theoretical procedures The development of interpretive modes of various stripes post structuralist Marxian phenomenological psychoanalytic as well as others dissenting or eccentric has given scholars a range of tools for rethinking architecture in relation to other fields and for reasserting architecture's general importance in intellectual discourse This anthology presents forty seven of the primary texts of architecture theory introducing each with an explication of the concepts and categories necessary for its understanding and evaluation It also presents twelve documents of projects or events that had major theoretical repercussions for the period Several of the essays appear here in English for the first time Contributors Diana Agrest Stanford Anderson Archizoom George Baird Jennifer Bloomer Massimo Cacciari Jean Louis Cohen Beatriz Colomina Alan Colquhoun Maurice Culot Jacques Derrida Ignasi de Sol Morales Peter Eisenman Robin Evans Michel Foucault Kenneth Frampton Mario Gandelsonas Frank Gehry Jürgen Habermas John Hejduk Denis Hollier Bernard Huet Catherine Ingraham Fredric Jameson Charles A Jencks Jeffrey Kipnis Fred Koetter Rem Koolhaas Leon Krier Sanford Kwinter Henri Lefebvre Daniel Libeskind Mary McLeod Alberto Pérez Gómez Jos Quetglas Aldo Rossi Colin Rowe Massimo Scolari Denise Scott Brown Robert Segrest Jorge Silvetti Robert Somol Martin Steinmann Robert A M Stern James Stirling Manfredo Tafuri Georges Teyssot Bernard Tschumi Anthony Vidler Paul Virilio Mark Wigley An Introduction to Architectural Theory Harry Francis Mallgrave, David J. Goodman, 2011-03-16 A sharp and lively text that covers issues in depth but not to the point that they become inaccessible to beginning students An Introduction to Architectural Theory is the first narrative history of this period charting the veritable revolution in architectural thinking that has taken place as well as the implications of this intellectual upheaval The first comprehensive and critical history of architectural theory over the last fifty years surveys the intellectual history of architecture since 1968 including criticisms of high modernism the rise of postmodern and poststructural theory critical regionalism and tectonics Offers a comprehensive overview of the significant changes that architectural thinking has undergone in the past fifteen years Includes an analysis of where architecture stands and where it will likely move in the coming years Architecture's Desire K. Michael Hays, 2009-10-02 Theorizes an architectural ethos of extreme self reflection and finality from a Lacanian perspective While it is widely recognized that the advanced architecture of the 1970s left a legacy of experimentation and theoretical speculation as intense as any in architecture's history there has been no general theory of that ethos Now in Architecture's Desire K Michael Hays writes an account of the late avant garde as an architecture systematically twisting back on itself pondering its own historical status and deliberately exploring architecture's representational possibilities right up to their absolute limits In close readings of the brooding melancholy silence of Aldo Rossi the radically reductive decompositions and archaeologies of Peter Eisenman the carnivalesque excesses of John Hejduk and the cinegrammatic delirium of Bernard Tschumi Hays narrates the story of architecture confronting its own boundaries with objects of ever more reflexivity difficulty and intransigence The late avant garde is the last architecture with philosophical aspirations an architecture that could think philosophical problems through architecture rather than merely illustrate them It takes architecture as the object of its own reflection which in turn produces an unrelenting desire Using the tools of critical theory together with the structure of Lacan's triad imaginary symbolic real Hays constructs a theory of architectural desire that is historically specific and yet sets the terms and the challenges of all subsequent architectural practice including today's Modernism and the Posthumanist Subject K. Michael Hays, 1995 Drawing on both the work of modern theorists like Georg Lukács Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno and Siegfried Kracauer and more recent poststructuralist thought K Michael Hays creates an entirely new method of reading architectural production Drawing both on the work of modern theorists like Georg Lukács Walter Benjamin Theodor Adorno and Siegfried Kracauer and on more recent poststructuralist thought K Michael Hays creates an entirely new method of reading architectural production Challenging much of the traditional wisdom about modernism and the avant garde Hays argues that a rigorously articulated posthumanist position was actually developed in the modernist architecture of Hannes Meyer and Ludwig Hilberseimer He reinterprets their buildings projects and writings as constructions of this new category of subjectivity Architectural Theory, Volume 2 Harry Francis Mallgrave, Christina Contandriopoulos, 2008-08-11 This second volume of the landmark Architectural Theory anthology surveys the development of architectural theory from the Franco Prussian war of 1871 until the end of the twentieth century The entire two volume anthology follows the full range of architectural literature from classical times to present transformations An ambitious anthology bringing together over 300 classic and contemporary essays that survey the key developments and trends in architecture Spans the period from 1871 to 2005 from John Ruskin and the arts and crafts movement in Great Britain through to the development of Lingang New City and the creation of a metropolis in the East China sea Organized thematically featuring general and section introductions and headnotes to each essay written by a renowned expert on architectural theory Places the work of architects like Koolhaas Eisenman and Lynn alongside the work of prominent architectural critics offering a balanced perspective on current debates Includes many hard to find texts and works never previously translated into English Alongside Volume I An Anthology from Vitruvius to 1870 creates a stunning overview of architectural theory from early antiquity to the twenty first century Introducing Architectural Theory Korydon Smith, Miguel Guitart, 2024-01-22 Building on the success of the first edition an engaging and reader friendly work on complex ideas Introducing Architectural Theory Expanding the Disciplinary Debate broadens the range of themes voices and geographies represented to provide a more comprehensive and contemporary theory book This book presents major discourses in architectural theory and design in a debate like format integrating a series of edited texts across architectural history with context and newly written commentaries by the authors This new edition has been fully revised updated and expanded to include long standing debates such as simplicity vs complexity or the relationship between form and function as well as newer discussions on innovation globalization and social equity Authors Smith and Guitart provide a comprehensive means and conceptual framework for readers to compare multiple points of view The chapter structure discussion questions and additional resources allow teachers to facilitate in class discussions and writing assignments This book remains the most accessible architectural theory textbook written for beginning architecture students and those outside the discipline Its reflective and critical approach will equally engage the minds of upper level students and experts

This Thing Called Theory Teresa Stoppani, Giorgio Ponzio, George Themistokleous, 2016-11-10 In the age of post digital architecture and digital materiality This Thing Called Theory explores current practices of architectural theory their critical and productive role The book is organized in sections which explore theory as an open issue in architecture as it relates to and borrows from other disciplines thus opening up architecture itself and showing how architecture is inextricably connected to other social and theoretical practices The sections move gradually from the specifics of architectural thought its history theory and criticism and their ongoing relation with philosophy to the critical positions formulated through architecture s specific forms of expression and onto more recent forms of architecture s engagement and self definition The book s thematic sessions are concluded by and interspersed with a series of shorter critical position texts which together propose a new vision of the contemporary role of theory in architecture What emerges overall is a critical and productive role for theory in architecture today theory as a proposition theory as task and as a risk of architecture
