Asian Financial Integration Ofchinese Edition:

Reform, Opening-up and China's Changing Role in Global Governance Yuyan Zhang, 2021-02-08 This book looks back to 40 years ago for the whole history of China's reform and opening up and focuses on the role change of China in the relationship with outside world In the first half part the author explores China's economic reform and opening up policy from theoretical analysis and systematic interpretation In the second part the author aims to present how China's international roles have changed in recent years and the Chinese appeal and purpose of participating in and improving global governance procedure The author answers the question of why China has obtained miraculous achievements after its reform and opening up from academic perspective and provides representative cases with profound but not obscure theoretical interpretation It is a must read for anyone who is interested in contemporary China's economy and foreign affairs Business, Economic and Financial Issues in Emerging Markets and Advanced Economies after the COVID-19 Crisis Giray Gozgor, Chi Lau, 2023-11-22

This Research Topic is Volume 2 in the Research Topic series Economic and Financial Issues in the Post COVID 19 World Implications and Role of Public Health Both developed and developing economies have experienced significant risks and uncertainties due to the COVID 19 pandemic There are still risks and uncertainty shocks of the COVID 19 in every aspect of the global economic and financial system including investors decisions and the financial sector's development In this Research Topic we aim to understand the dynamics of business economic and financial issues including potential structural changes after the COVID 19 in emerging markets and advanced economies This Research Topic's main goal is to provide different aspects and consequences of economic and financial issues in emerging markets and advanced economies after the COVID 19 pandemic In particular we welcome interdisciplinary empirical and theoretical papers panel data studies survey studies and time series analyses focusing on the business economic and financial issues after the COVID 19 crisis We also welcome policy briefs of people working at central banks governments and other public institutions focusing on these issues

Research Handbook on Asian Financial Law Douglas W. Arner, Wai Yee Wan, Andrew Godwin, Wei Shen, Evan Gibson, 2020-01-31 This comprehensive Research Handbook provides an in depth analysis of the different financial law approaches legal systems and trends throughout Asia It considers how reforms following the crises have been critical for the development and growth of the region and explores a broad range of post crisis financial regulatory issues This timely book also examines how inconsistent and divergent approaches to financial market regulation are curtailing the region's potential

China and East Asia's Post-Crises Community Wei Liang, Faizullah Khilji, 2012-10-04 China and East Asia's Post Crises Community A Region in Flux by Wei Liang and Faizullah Khilji explores how an East Asian community is taking shape as a result of China's emergence as a global economic power and the shocks of the financial crises emanating from the globalized financial system Today's East Asia shows a sharp break from the East Asia of the Cold War era in both basis and orientation Important elements in this shift include the regional economic integration propelled by China's emergence as a processed manufacturing center in the world economy the common problems posed by the working of the dollar based international financial system and the desire to develop institutions that help to formalize the economic integration and financial cooperation that is taking place and may thus help protect and safeguard economic prosperity in the region Liang and Khilji show how the approach to regional economic cooperation and developing institutions comes from the bottom up lacking any leader nation grand vision or ideology The manner in which the region comes to work together also has implications for the governance of the world economy in particular the economic model that underlies policy formulation the working of the international financial system and the approach to the multilateral trading system From a security oriented US centric regional structure characterized as the hub and spokes system set up after the Second World War this region is now more nearly an informal economic community which increasingly appears to be China centric China and East Asia s Post Crises Community presents one of the first attempts to weave together different strands of the current discussion to develop a framework for understanding a rapidly evolving East Asia region

Asian Responses to the Global Financial Crisis Jehoon Park,T. J. Pempel,Geng Xiao,2012-01-01 This book takes account of the global financial crisis from Asian perspectives considering Asian responses to the crisis via two key arenas regionalism in Asia and the G20 The expert contributors both Asian and Western illustrate that as G20 members many Asian countries are now able to showcase their increasing powers and influence on global issues Within this context and via multidisciplinary economic and political science perspectives the book deals with various issues such as World System analysis the debate between the Washington Consensus and the Beijing Consensus roles within the G20 and the contribution of middle powers such as Korea and Australia The application of European experiences to Asia is also considered as are perspectives from the US The book concludes that the key to resolving the current global economic crisis lies in how quickly a new global governance and monitoring system can be constructed and that there are multiple roles for Asian countries to play in its development Written with a uniquely multidisciplinary approach this book will prove a fascinating read for a wide ranging audience encompassing academics students researchers and policymakers in a number of fields including Asian studies economics public policy and regional studies

The Future of Asian Finance Ms.Ratna Sahay,Cheng Hoon Lim,Mr.Chikahisa Sumi,Mr.James P Walsh,Mr.Jerald Alan Schiff,2015-08-21 Asia's financial systems proved resilient to the shocks from the global financial crisis and growth since then has been strong But new challenges have emerged in the region's economies including demographics and aging the need to diversify from bank dominated systems urbanization and infrastructure and the rebalancing of economic activity This book takes stock of the challenges facing the region today and how economic systems in Asia's advanced and emerging market economies compare with the rest of the world

Rising India and Indian Communities in East Asia K Kesavapany,2003-08-01 This edited volume containing thirty five chapters focuses on three main contemporary issues the phenomenon of the new Indian in the past five decades the impact of rising India on settled Indian communities and the recent migrants By examining these interrelated aspects this study seeks to address questions like what does the Rising India mean to Indian communities in East Asia How are members of Indian communities responding to India's rise Will India pay greater attention to people of Indian origin And last but not least will Indians in East Asia identify themselves with their ancestral land or view such identification as problematic

Asian Economic Cooperation In The New Millennium: China's Economic Presence Christopher M Edmonds,Calla Wiemer,Heping Cao,2004-12-01 This volume is the outgrowth of a conference held at Peking University in May 2002 jointly sponsored by the American Committee on Asian Economic Studies the Peking University School of Economics and the China Reform Forum The contributors include leading scholars from Asia as well as specialists on Asia from the US Europe and Australia The book delves into issues of trade and investment exchange rates and macroeconomic policy and preferential trade agreements and other forms of economic cooperation The overall message is one of regional dynamism animated by concerted efforts to build a favorable institutional environment China is a great motivating force in this dynamism and a key player in the development of regional agreements
