Apartheid Israel The Politics Of An Analogy:

Apartheid Israel Sean Jacobs, Jon Soske, 2015-11-02 In Apartheid Israel The Politics of an Analogy eighteen scholars of Africa and its diaspora reflect on the similarities and differences between apartheid era South Africa and contemporary Israel with an eye to strengthening and broadening today's movement for justice in Palestine Israel, Palestine and the Politics of Race Yasmeeen Abu-Laban, Abigail B. Bakan, 2019-10-31 As the situation in Israel Palestine seems to become ever more intractable and protracted the need for new ways of looking at recent developments and their historical roots is more pressing than ever Bearing this in mind Yasmeeen Abu Laban and Abigail B Bakan discuss the historic and contemporary dynamics in Israel Palestine and their international reverberations from the unique vantage point of race racialization racism and anti racism They therefore offer close analysis of the idea of Israel and the absence of Palestine by examining the concepts of race and identity in the region With fresh coverage of themes relating to gender Idigeneity the environment surveillance and the war on terror Israel Palestine and the Politics of Race will appeal to scholars in political science sociology and Middle East studies Comparing Armed Conflicts Bruno Charbonneau, Adam Sandor, 2021-07-12

Comparing armed conflicts primes the production of categories that when mobilized can alter the trajectories of the conflicts Considering the political dynamism of spaces of conflict and intervention and that practitioners regularly seek out academic expertise this book discusses the possibilities and limits of comparative approaches to understanding armed conflict and intervention Capacity building experts development workers international organizations and diplomats use their previous experiences and bring them into new contexts to understand and respond to their environment Conflict actors can also make comparisons to buttress their political position in negotiations consolidate their control over fighters and as calls for transnational rebel solidarity The use of such comparisons is an inherently political move and it has an impact on the production of scientific knowledge on conflict dynamics themselves and on the formulation and implementation of conflict management policy comparison is inherently a practice of order making While there are important epistemological and methodological stakes associated with researchers engaging in comparison there are also important productive effects connected to the research avenues taken The chapters in this book were originally published in the Civil Wars Post45

Vs. The World: Literary Perspectives on the Global Contemporary William G. Welty, 2023-01-31 Much of the work done on the Post45 literary field carries an implicitly Americanist perspective Even the name of the field suggests a certain literary history with certain assumptions and blind spots about national spaces identities and histories But what would Post45 look like when considered from outside of the United States How do the current contours of the field exclude certain voices either in the United States or elsewhere in the world And how would such new perspectives shift the beginning and possible endpoint of that literary period What new narratives of the contemporary emerge if we begin telling the story in a different year or from a different national or global perspective This collection attempts to re frame the discussions in Post45 by engaging with non American writers texts and perspectives Additionally productive conversations emerge by attempting to think of canonical American writers like Mark Twain and Ishmael Reed from other national and global perspectives The authors consider both the ways texts themselves as well as their reception histories approach and challenge our understandings of the contemporary Ultimately the collection interrogates prevailing narratives of history culture identity and space within the Post45 field In so doing it re considers the historical periodization of the field which currently covers approximately 75 years of literary history The resulting essays thus work towards a new intertwined narrative about what defines the contemporary and how national and global literatures fit into that moment of world history

Social Justice and Israel/Palestine Aaron J. Hahn Tapper, Mira Sucharov, 2019-06-24 This book critically assesses a series of complex and topical debates helping readers to make sense of the politics surrounding the Israeli Palestinian relationship Each chapter considers one topic represented by two or three essays offered in conversation with one another Together these essays advance different perspectives in some cases they are complementary and in others they are oppositional Topics include scholarly and activist interpretations of narratives in the context of Israel Palestine the concept of self determination for Jewish Israelis and Palestinians the debate over settler colonialism as an appropriate framework for interpreting the history of Israel Palestine and questions surrounding Jewish and Palestinian refugees and the impact of displacement among others Through these foundational and contemporary topics readers will be challenged to critically examine the strengths and weaknesses of each position in light of scholarly debates rooted in social justice and helped to gain a deeper understanding of the relationship between Israelis and Palestinians in order to see a path forward toward justice for all

Traces of Racial Exception Ronit Lentin, 2018-08-09 Positioning race front and centre this book theorizes that political violence in the form of a socio political process that differentiates between human and less than human populations is used by the state of Israel in racializing and ruling the citizens of occupied Palestine Lentin argues that Israel s rule over Palestine is an example of Agamben s state of exception Goldberg s racial state and Wolfe s settler colony the Israeli racial settler colony employs its laws to rule besieged Palestine while excluding itself and its Jewish citizen colonists from legal instruments and governmental technologies Governing through emergency legislation and through practices of exception emergency necessity and security Israel positions itself outside domestic and international law Deconstructing Agamben s Eurocentric theoretical position Lentin shows that it occludes colonialism settler colonialism and anti colonialism and fails to specifically foreground race instead she combines the work of Wolfe who proposes race as a trace of settler colonialism and Weheliye who argues that Agamben s western centric understanding of exception fail to speak from explicitly racialized and gendered standpoints Employing existing media activist and academic accounts of racialization this book deliberately breaks from white Western theorizations of biopolitics exception and bare life and instead foregrounds race and gender in analysing settler colonial conditions in Israel

Explaining Foreign Policy in Post-Colonial Africa Stephen M. Magu, 2021-01-02 This book explores foreign policy developments in post colonial Africa A continental foreign policy is a tenuous proposition yet new African states emerged out of armed resistance and advocacy from regional allies such as the Bandung Conference and the League of Arab States Ghana was the first Sub Saharan African country to gain independence in 1957 Fourteen more countries gained independence in 1960 alone and by May 1963 when the Organisation of African Unity OAU was formed 30 countries were independent An early OAU committee was the African Liberation Committee ALC tasked to work in the Frontline States FLS to support independence in Southern Africa Pan Africanists in alliance with Brazzaville Casablanca and Monrovia groups approached continental unity differently and regionalism continued to be a major feature Africa s challenges were often magnified by the capitalist democratic versus communist socialist bloc rivalry but through Africa s use and leveraging of IGOs the UN UNDP UNECA GATT NIEO and others to advance development the formation of the African Economic Community OAU s evolution into the AU and other alliances belied collective actions even as Africa implemented decisions that required cooperation uti possidetis maintaining colonial borders containing secession intra and inter state conflicts rebellions and building RECs and a united Africa as envisioned by Pan Africanists worked better collectively

Encountering Palestine Mark Griffiths, Mikko Joronen, 2023-12 This edited volume is situated at the intersection of cultural and political geographies that offers innovative reflections on power colonialism and anti colonialism in contemporary Palestine and Israel

Psychoanalysis Under Occupation Lara Sheehi, Stephen Sheehi, 2021-11-11 Heavily influenced by Frantz Fanon and critically engaging the theories of decoloniality and liberatory psychoanalysis Lara Sheehi and Stephen Sheehi platform the lives perspectives and insights of psychoanalytically inflected Palestinian psychologists psychiatrists and other mental health professionals centering the stories that non clinical Palestinians have entrusted to them over four years of community engagement with clinicians throughout historic Palestine Sheehi and Sheehi document the stories of Palestinian clinicians in relation to settler colonialism and violence but even more so in relation to their patients communities families and one another as a clinical community In doing so they track the appearance of settler colonialism as a psychologically extractive process one that is often effaced by discourses of normalization trauma resilience and human rights with the aid of clinicians as well as psychoanalysis Psychoanalysis Under Occupation Practicing Resistance in Palestine unpacks the intersection of psychoanalysis as a psychological practice in Palestine while also advancing a set of therapeutic theories in which to critically engage and read the politically complex array of conditions that define life for Palestinians living under Israeli occupation

Conflicts Liron Mor, 2024-01-02 Liron Mor s book queries what conflict means in the context of Palestine Israel Conflict has long been seen as singular and primary as an original sin that necessitates the state and underwrites politics This book problematizes this universal notion of conflict revealing its colonial implications and proposing that conflicts are always politically constructed after the fact and are thus to be understood in their various specific forms The book explores sites of poetic and political strife in Palestine Israel by combining a comparative study of Hebrew and Arabic literature with political and literary theory Mor leverages an archive that ranges from the 1930s to the present from prose and poetry to film and television to challenge the conception of the Palestinian Israeli context as a conflict delineating the colonial history of this concept and showing its inadequacy to Palestine Israel Instead Mor articulates locally specific modes of theorizing the antagonisms and mediations colonial technologies and anticolonial practices that make up the fabric of this site The book thus offers five figurative conflictual concepts that are derived from the poetics of the works conflict judgment ishtib k leva im disorienting dilemmas ikhtif anti colonial disappearance o mediating law and inqis m hostile severance In so doing Conflicts aims to generate a historically and geographically situated mode of theory making which defies the separation between the conceptual and the poetic
