The Oxford Handbook of Archaeological Ceramic Analysis Alice M. W. Hunt, 2016-12-01 The Oxford Handbook of Archaeological Ceramic Analysis draws together topics and methodologies essential for the socio cultural mineralogical and geochemical analysis of archaeological ceramic Ceramic is one of the most complex and ubiquitous archaeomaterials in the archaeological record it occurs around the world and through time in almost every culture and context from building materials and technological installations to utilitarian wares and votive figurines For more than 100 years archaeologists have used ceramic analysis to answer complex questions about economy subsistence technological innovation social organization and dating The volume is structured around the themes Research design and data analysis Foundational concepts Evaluating ceramic provenance Investigating ceramic manufacture Assessing vessel function and Dating ceramic assemblages It provides a common vocabulary and offers practical tools and guidelines for ceramic analysis using techniques and methodologies ranging from network analysis and typology to rehydroxylation dating and inductively coupled plasma mass spectrometry Each chapter provides the theoretical background and practical guidelines such as cost and destructiveness of analysis for each technique as well as detailed case studies illustrating the application and interpretation of analytical data for answering anthropological questions

Chemicals and Methods for Conservation and Restoration Johannes Karl Fink, 2017-06-23 Before the 1970s most information concerning the conservation and restoration of paintings wood and archaeological artefacts were focused on the history of the artefacts previous attempts of conservation and the future use of these artefacts The technical methods of how the restoration and conservation were made were dealt with only very briefly Today sophisticated methods of scientific analysis such as DNA are common place and this encourages conservators and scientists to work together to work out the development of new methods for analysis and conservation of artefacts This book focuses on the chemicals used for conservation and restoration of various artefacts in artwork and archaeology as well as special applications of these materials Also the methods used both methods for cleaning conservation and restoration as well as methods for the analysis of the state of the respective artefacts Topics include oil paintings paper conservation textiles and dyes for them archaeological wood fossils stones metals and metallic coins and glasses including church windows Mass Spectrometry Handbook Mike S. Lee,2012-05-08 Due to its enormous sensitivity and ease of use mass spectrometry has grown into the analytical tool of choice in most industries and areas of research This unique reference provides an extensive library of methods used in mass spectrometry covering applications of mass spectrometry in fields as diverse as drug discovery environmental science forensic science clinical analysis polymers oil composition doping cellular research semiconductor ceramics metals and alloys and homeland security The book provides the reader with a protocol for the technique described including sampling methods and explains why to use a particular method and not others Essential for MS specialists working in industrial environmental and clinical fields

Scientific Methods and Cultural Heritage Gilberto Artioli,2010-07-08 The scientific analysis of cultural heritage materials poses specific and often difficult analytical challenges This book attempts to rationalize the links between the most commonly asked questions in archaeology art history and conservation with the potential answers resulting from the vast array of scientific techniques presently available New Technologies for Archaeology Markus Reindel,Günther A.

Wagner,2009-02-07 This heavily illustrated book covers recent developments in archaeometry and offers a multidisciplinary approach to reconstructing complex cultural histories It also presents a detailed history of human development in South America s Nasca region The Archaeology of the Sapsuk River, Alaska Herbert D. G. Maschner,2010 Obsidian and
