S. van Geenhuizen, 2010 These books offer the work of leading representatives of academic business and government sectors worldwide who discuss current and future issues of critical importance for using science and technology to foster regional economic development and shared prosperity at home and abroad Multidisciplinary perspectives provide state of the art and useful knowledge to decision makers in both the private and public sectors including informed and effective education business and government policies and strategies for the global knowledge economy Book Jacket

Innovation Strategies in Interdependent States John De la Mothe, 2006-02-24 Examining the issues facing smaller regions and countries John de la Mothe explores how innovation strategy and interdependence shape their performance competition and futures Innovation and interdependence are central elements of advanced and advancing economies In our globalized world the production of knowledge is continually evolving This is reflected in the design of institutions and in the results on the standards of living that are achieved and sustained It also implies new forms of competition Increasingly smaller countries regions and cities that do not fit into traditional theories of growth are becoming leaders in technology intensive products and quick followers in innovative practices Often heavily committed to large emerging economic markets such as China and India and political hegemony such as Germany Japan and the United States smaller nations regions and cities are playing an almost unprecedented role in the shape of things to come By examining the texture of the new economy paths to constructing advantage and aspects of the cultures that lead to the new economy this book provides a valuable and essential guide to scholars policymakers strategists and students

National Innovation, Indicators and Policy L. Earl, 2006-01-01 This book takes stock of what is known about the process of innovation and its effects and the policy interventions that influence both It provides insights into future research required to support evidence based policy making and makes clear the need to take a systems approach to the analysis of innovation its outcomes and its impacts The contributors explore the fact that economic theory statistical measurement and the need to achieve targets are combining to shift policy focus towards the economic and social impacts of innovation This is forcing economists and statisticians to look for new measures indicators and analytical frameworks to support the public policy debate and the implementations of change necessary for success The book emphasizes the importance of linkages and communities of practice in measuring and analyzing innovation and focuses on the importance of social sciences as well as natural sciences to the activity of innovation policy relevant discussions on the measurement gaps in the activity of innovation quantitative results of analysis relating to the output of innovation activities theoretical frameworks and concepts for measurement of the activity of innovation suggestions for new measurement directions for the activity of innovation which will lead into an international forum to discuss indicator development at the OECD over the next decade Illustrating that the expectations of innovation policies are being raised this book will prove fascinating reading for policy analysts economists academics and students with an interest in innovation industrial dynamics and science and technology

Innovation and the Creative Process Lars Fuglsang, 2008-01-01 After phenomenology and feminism the concept of care is taken forward to conceive innovation as an interactive process requiring diversity and collectivity A fresh look at innovation is grounded in the long standing experience of the Roskilde group and it takes the readers into an intriguing voyage in practical creativity Silvia Gherardi Dipartimento di Sociologia e Ricerca Sociale Italy It is not an easy task to be innovative in the large and increasing field of innovation studies We should therefore thank and welcome the Roskilde School for achieving such a difficult task This book provides a new and promising vision of innovation which is metaphorically called innovation with care This new theory draws upon a sociological perspective in order to open up the black box of the organization It brings interacting people and social process to the forefront of innovation phenomena Innovation and the Creative Process explores innovation with care illustrating that it is possible to integrate in the innovation theory a wide range of specialized and non specialized actors activities and forms of business and social innovations Following the Schumpeterian tradition it provides a more comprehensive notion of innovation and enlarges the scope of innovation theory This book represents a fruitful approach to innovation which academics private and public practitioners should consider with much care Fa z Gallouj University of Lille France This book explores new frameworks and methods of understanding and analysing innovation These are set against a backdrop of innovation with care which is seen as a phenomenon that takes place among many actors with different perspectives ideas and cultures that must be carefully woven together in order to achieve the benefits of innovation The new perspectives presented by the contributors will be important in encouraging successful innovation across sectors organizations and people They examine how people and organizations deal with the tensions and paradoxes in the innovative process between creativity and innovation variation and selection and sense and strategy making The book also includes a sociological approach to innovation as a complement to economic perspectives in order to better understand how people can benefit from innovation in a number of interesting private and public cases To benefit from innovation it concludes people depend less on formal roles and formal organization than on a caring approach that enables them to deal with and interpret evolutions across people organizations and sectors This highly original innovative book will provide fascinating reading for a diverse audience including academics researchers policymakers and managers with an interest in innovation organization studies institutional theory and more generally business and
