Aesthetics For Young People:

Young People and the Aesthetics of Health Promotion Kerry Montero, Peter Kelly, 2016-03-10 Health promotion with young people has largely been framed by theories of behaviour change to target unsafe unhealthy and or risky behaviours These theories and models seek to encourage the development in young people of reasoned rational and risk aware personal strategies This book presents an innovative and critical perspective on young people and health promotion It explores the limits and possibilities of traditional health behaviour change models with their focus on reason risk and rationality by examining the embodied dimensions of meaning making in health promotion programs Drawing on an array of critical social theories and approaches to knowledge production the authors identify and engage the aesthetic and affective dimensions of young people s engagement with issues such as road safety sexualities alcohol and drug use and physical and mental health and well being The book will appeal to researchers and practitioners in the fields of health promotion and health education public health education the sociology of health and illness youth studies and youth work The Social Contexts of Young People ,2024-02-14 This edited volume investigates young people within their social contexts The focus is on engaging young people as they transition from youth into young adulthood Key advantages of this book are its embodiment of interdisciplinarity in gathering research across a range of diverse methods theories settings and countries The volume begins with reviews of key theories and methods in understanding young people within their social networked contexts of generosity networks identity and ethnic heritage The second section includes chapters attending to education and work as contexts for transitions to adulthood counseling meaning and aesthetics from high school to college and into workplaces The third section includes chapters studying community engagement and the well being of young people including social support meaning in life religiosity spirituality stress coping yoga and sports The diverse topics addressed in this edited volume are generosity philanthropy voluntary action social networks social identity personhood ethnic heritage post colonialism intersectionality personality lived experiences informal economy sustainability pandemic family support educational counselors motivation Not in Education Employment or Training NEET everyday aesthetics built environment generativity community adult allies youth engagement life satisfaction spiritual identity religious affiliation stress practicing yoga sexual violence athletes sports climate pressures to perform resilience and neurodiversity Disciplines span economics business education sociology psychology medical science geography journalism architecture engineering science and technology and applied sciences Methods include quantitative surveys qualitative in depth interviews life course biographies ethnographic case studies bibliometric analysis and integrative reviews Young people are investigated across thirteen countries including the United States United Kingdom Yemen Ghana Bahrain Norway Denmark Finland Sweden Iceland Canada Romania and the Netherlands Youth Technoculture: From Aesthetics to Politics Sylvie Octobre, 2020-12-15 Fake mods gaming remix these terms refer to modes of access linked to digital convergence but above all to capacities for action on cultural content as well as on creative capacities made possible thanks to ICTs The media cultures of the audiovisual era are thus succeeded by the techno cultures of the digital era in which the smartphone is becoming the first cultural terminal These changes have a profound influence on the ways in which young people build their lives but also on social ties What do fansubbing and media activism have in common What education do these changes require These are some of the questions Youth Technoculture From Aesthetics to Politics tries to answer Essays on Aesthetic Education for the 21st Century, 2010-01-01 Essays on Aesthetic Education for the 21st Century co edited by Tracie Costantino and Boyd White brings together an international collection of authors representing diverse viewpoints to engage in dialogue about the ongoing critical relevance of aesthetics for contemporary art education Inspired by a conference symposium in which the four authors in the first section of the text titled Initiating a Dialogue explore a range of concepts including aesthetic experience beauty wonder and aesthetics this book enlarges the dialogue with eight additional chapters by authors from North America and Europe In addition to chapters that address issues of social awareness curriculum theory and research and applications to practice with pre service teachers there are several chapters that acknowledge historical influences on current notions of aesthetics as a basis on which to open the gate into the twenty first century This book will be a valuable resource for graduate students in art education and curriculum studies as well as practicing art educators pre service teachers and anyone interested in the significance of aesthetics not only in contemporary art education but the wider field of general education as well Youth, Arts, and Education Anna Hickey-Moody, 2013-02-11 How are the arts important in young people s lives Youth Arts and Education offers a groundbreaking theory of arts education Anna Hickey Moody explores how the arts are ways of belonging resisting being governed and being heard Through examples from the United Kingdom and Australia Anna Hickey Moody shows the cultural significance of the kinds of learning that occur in and through arts Drawing on the thought of Gilles Deleuze she develops the theory of affective pedagogy which explains the process of learning that happens through aesthetics Bridging divides between critical pedagogical theory youth studies and arts education scholarship this book Explains the cultural significance of the kinds of learning that occur in and through arts Advances a theory of aesthetic citizenship created by youth arts Demonstrates ways in which arts practices are forms popular and public pedagogy Critiques popular ideas that art can be used to fix problems in the lives of youth at risk Youth Arts and Education is the first post critical theory of arts education It will be of interest to students and scholars across the social sciences and humanities in particular in the sociology of education arts education youth studies sociology of the arts and cultural studies Physical Activity and Children Noemie P. Beaulieu, 2008 Physical inactivity is a major risk factor for developing coronary artery disease It also increases the risk of stroke and such other major cardiovascular risk factors as obesity high blood pressure low HDL good cholesterol and diabetes The American Heart Association recommends that children and adolescents participate in at least 60 minutes of moderate to vigorous physical activity every day Increased physical activity has been associated with an increased life expectancy and decreased risk of cardiovascular disease Physical activity produces overall physical psychological and social benefits Inactive children are likely to become inactive adults This book presents new research in the field from around the world

Communities of Practice: Art, Play, and Aesthetics in Early Childhood Christopher M. Schulte, Christine Marmé Thompson, 2018-01-08 Reflecting contemporary theory and research in early art education this volume offers a comprehensive introduction to new ways of thinking about the place of art play and aesthetics in the lives and education of young children Enlivened by narratives and illustrations 16 authors offer perspectives on the lived experience of being a child and discovering the excitement of making meaning and form in the process of art play and aesthetic inquiry

Rock Aesthetics in Colombian Literature and Culture David Martinez Houghton, 2024-10-15 Rock Aesthetics in Colombian Literature and Culture Writing the Noise explores the presence of a rock aesthetic in the Colombian literary field and how its pivotal role in creating alternative creative expressions that challenge the dominance of tropicality as the prevailing artistic reference More than a musical genre or a cultural industry rock is also an aesthetic a significant social practice that allows one to understand what people consider beautiful or authentic Since its birth in the mid 1950s rock as an aesthetic has expanded worldwide transforming and establishing dialogues with artistic practices such as literature Through an analysis of a series of novels poems and manifestos written from the 1950s to the early years of the twenty first century David Marti nez Houghton embarks on a literary musical and historical journey On the way he explores complex phenomena such as urban violence the formation of youth identities the penetration of pop culture national identity discourses and even the social and physical transformation of Colombian cities

The Aesthetics of Self-Harm Zoe Alderton, 2018-05-11 The Aesthetics of Self Harm presents a new approach to understanding parasuicidal behaviour based upon an examination of online communities that promote performances of self harm in the pursuit of an idealised beauty The book considers how online communities provide a significant level of support for self harmers and focuses on relevant case studies to establish a new model for the comprehension of the online supportive community To do so Alderton explores discussions of self harm and disordered eating on social networks She examines aesthetic trends that contextualise harmful behavior and help people to perform feelings of sadness and vulnerability online Alderton argues that the traditional understanding of self violence through medical discourse is important but that it misses vital elements of human group activity and the motivating forces of visual imagery Covering psychiatry and psychology rhetoric and sociology this book provides essential reading for psychologists sociologists and anthropologists exploring group dynamics and ritual and rhetoricians who are concerned with the communicative powers of images It should also be of great interest to medical professionals dealing with self harming patients

Aesthetic Approaches to Children's Literature Maria Nikolajeva, 2005-05-12 As undergraduate and graduate courses in children s literature become more established and numerous there is an intense need for a textbook that offers aesthetic rather than educational approaches to children s literature This work fills that void by providing students of children's literature with a comprehensible and easy to use analytical tool kit showing through concrete demonstration how each tool might best be used The chapters are organized around familiar and easily recognized features of literary texts e g author genre character Theoretical issues are illustrated by specific texts from the North American children's literature canon The book explores the particular aesthetics of children's fiction and the ways critical theory may be applied to children's texts while remaining accessible to a college readership without prior specialized knowledge of literary theory Each chapter includes a short introduction to a specific theoretical approach e g semiotics feminist psychoanalytic an example of its application to a literary text a number of activities study questions reading exercises and suggestions for further explorations
