African Voices An Introduction To The Languages And Linguistics Of Africa:

African Voices Kembo-Sure, Victor N. Webb, 2000 This book focuses on the languages and linguistics of Africa Covering the major themes that are dealt with in university courses and making extensive use of linguistic symbols and diagrams this is an essential text for undergraduate and postgraduate linguistics students in South Africa and Africa as a whole as well as for students of African studies worldwide Its topics include general descriptions of African languages the nature of languages in contact and in competition language in education and the need for governmental intervention in linguistic issues

African Voices E. Kembo-Sure, V. N. Webb, 2000 The Linguistic Typology and Representation of African Languages John M. Mugane, 2003 For the thirty third consecutive year the Annual Conference on African Linguistics ACAL has provided the major forum for the discussion of linguistic data geared towards understanding how African languages are constituted acquired and used This volume represents a selection of 25 peer reviewed papers from the 33rd AWAL held in March 2002 at Ohio University in Athens The papers cover language acquisition syntax phonetics phonology morphology historical linguistics as well as language use and function in Africa Language, Society, and Empowerment in Africa and Its Diaspora Akinloyè Òjó, 2022-09-06 Africa's diversity is best illustrated linguistically Thousands of endogenous and exogenous languages are linked to and central to the identity and reality of Africans Language is a vital lens for analyzing these multifaceted challenges in Africa where a deeper understanding of the entire linguistic landscape is germane to understanding sociopolitical and cultural systems Concentrating on instrumental and emblematic functions of language in Africa Language Society and Empowerment in Africa and Its Diaspora argues for the critical value of African languages beyond functionality into philosophical consideration of their importance for African unity and advancement Akinloyè j calls for the development and empowerment of African languages to serve in various domains including the support of basic literacy and daily survival of their users j propagates ways to empower African languages for African sociocultural and economic development in the twenty first century The author productively engages works by linguists and language pedagogues to provide an ardent case for the empowerment of African languages in the renewed era of globalization the internet and an emergent Global Africa j posits and accentuates some of the notable modalities for empowering African languages in specialized domains for national and continental development An Introduction to the Languages of the World Anatole Lyovin, Brett Kessler, William Ronald Leben, 2017 The only textbook of its kind An Introduction to the Languages of the World is designed to introduce beginning linguistics students who now typically start their study with little background in languages to the variety of the languages of the world Decolonising Multilingualism in Africa Finex Ndhlovu, Leketi Makalela, 2021-07-16 This book interrogates and problematises African multilingualism as it is currently understood in language education and research It challenges the enduring colonial matrices of power hidden within mainstream conceptions of multilingualism that have been propagated in the Global North and then exported to the Global

South under the aegis of colonial modernity and pretensions of universal epistemic relevance The book contributes new points of method theory and interpretation that will advance scholarly conversations on decolonial epistemology by introducing the notion of coloniality of language a summary term that describes the ways in which notions of language and multilingualism in post colonial societies remain colonial The authors begin the process of mapping out what a socially realistic notion of multilingualism would look like if we took into account the voices of marginalised and ignored African communities of practice both on the African continent and in the diasporas The Routledge Handbook of African Linguistics Augustine Agwuele, Adams Bodomo, 2018-03-09 The Handbook of African Linguistics provides a holistic coverage of the key themes subfields approaches and practical application to the vast areas subsumable under African linguistics that will serve researchers working across the wide continuum in the field Established and emerging scholars of African languages who are active and current in their fields are brought together each making use of data from a linguistic group in Africa to explicate a chosen theme within their area of expertise and illustrate the practice of the discipline in the continent

Language Science and Language technology in Africa Steve Ndinga-Koumba-Binza, Sonja E Bosch, 2012-10-01 This book provides a broad overview of current work on South African languages language resources and language technologies While it provides a fairly comprehensive overview it also ties together the most recent knowledge state here and is therefore truly innovative The book is therefore informed by current international trends in the respective fields of science and feeds back into them There is absolutely no doubt that the book has an academic peer audience and is directed at specialists in the field Prof Axel Fleisch University of Helsinki Finland Digital Skill Development for Industry 4.0 P Kaliraj, G Singaravelu, T. Devi, 2024-09-30 The Fourth Industrial Revolution Industry 4 0 is changing the world and digital transformation technology tools have impacted every walk of life The nature of work and careers is changing fast and in the future the right skills will be prized over academic qualifications Students must develop various skills especially technology skills to become the workforce of the future the onus of developing these skills falls on educational institutions The development of innovation and ideation skills in students is a must for them to productively contribute to a future economy They should have the capability to translate ideas into solutions products and systems that are scalable practically feasible and adaptable To prepare students for this digital world Digital Skill Development for Industry 4 0 contains chapters on developing Professional skills cognitive learning Critical thinking skills among modern learners Motivation and student engagement Invoking interest of students Student engagement in e learning Contextual learning Experimental learning Multidisciplinary learning The book is written for the academic and administrative community of universities and colleges who intend to equip their modern learners with the skills of Industry 4 0 It is also useful as a reference for undergraduate and postgraduate courses as well as doctoral programs The book can also serve as a comprehensive reference guide for researchers in the development of tools incorporating new skills and technologies Practitioners who are interested in introducing digital skill development for Industry 4.0 and its tools to solve real world problems can also use this book English as a Local Language Christina Higgins, 2009-07-08 When analyzed in multilingual contexts English is often treated as an entity that is separable from its linguistic environment. It is often the case however that multilinguals use English in hybrid and transcultural ways. This book explores how multilingual East Africans make use of English as a local resource in their everyday practices by examining a range of domains including workplace conversation, beauty pageants, hip hop and advertising. Drawing on the Bakhtinian concept of multivocality, the author uses discourse analysis and ethnographic approaches to demonstrate the range of linguistic and cultural hybridity found across these domains and to consider the constraints on hybridity in each context. By focusing on the cultural and linguistic bricolage in which English is often found, the book illustrates how multilinguals respond to the tension between local identification and dominant conceptualizations of English as a language for global communication.
