African Decolonization Contemporary History Series:

European Decolonization Martin Thomas, 2017-05-15 This collection brings together twenty one key articles that explore the nature and impact of colonial withdrawal Ranging across all the European colonial powers the articles discuss various aspects of decolonization including the role of political violence changing popular attitudes to empire and the inter actions between colonial conflict and Cold War

Communist Actors in African Decolonial Transitions Helder Adegar Fonseca, Chris Saunders, Lena Dallywater, 2025-10-20 In the long and protracted process of decolonization in sub Saharan Africa 1957 1994 three key moments in the transitions from colonial white ruled states to independent majority ruled states can be identified 1957 1965 1974 1980 and 1988 1994 These transitional phases of decolonization in sub Saharan Africa the beginnings of the process a crucial turning point in that process and its endings are worthy of reappraisal and invite comparisons of various kinds The existing literature does not consider the roles of communist actors in these transitions from a comparative perspective This is the main focus of this volume which will be an essential work for scholars of African decolonization and will interest anyone concerned with the history of communism and the external activities of the countries of the Soviet bloc and other communist actors

The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History John Parker, Richard Reid, 2013-10-10 The Oxford Handbook of Modern African History represents an invaluable tool for historians and others in the field of African studies This collection of essays produced by some of the finest scholars currently working in the field provides the latest insights into and interpretations of the history of Africa a continent with a rich and complex past An understanding of this past is essential to gain perspective on Africa s current challenges and this accessible and comprehensive volume will allow readers to explore various aspects political economic social and cultural of the continent s history over the last two hundred years Since African history first emerged as a serious academic endeavour in the 1950s and 1960s it has undergone numerous shifts in terms of emphasis and approach changes brought about by political and economic exigencies and by ideological debates This multi faceted Handbook is essential reading for anyone with an interest in those debates and in Africa and its peoples While the focus is determinedly historical anthropology geography literary criticism political science and sociology are all employed in this ground breaking study of Africa s past

The Palgrave Handbook of African Politics, Governance and Development Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Toyin Falola, 2017-10-10 This handbook constitutes a single collection of well researched articles and essays on African politics governance and development from the pre colonial through colonial to the post colonial eras Over the course of these interconnected periods African politics have evolved with varied experiences across different parts of the continent As politics is embedded both in the economy and the society Africa has witnessed some changes in politics economics demography and its relations with the world in ways that requires in depth analysis This work provides an opportunity for old and new scholars to engage in the universe of the debate around African politics governance and development and will serve as a ready reference material for students researchers policy makers and investors that are concerned with these issues Sport and Apartheid South Africa Michelle M. Sikes,Toby C. Rider,Matthew P. Llewellyn,2021-11-29 As athletes of today grapple with how to use their public platforms to fight for activist causes Sport and Apartheid South Africa Histories of Politics Power and Protest examines a set of longer histories of sport race and activism The book seeks to uncover and understand new historical aspects of apartheid and sport challenge myths and rethink dominant narratives It examines the subject of racially segregated sport in South Africa from national and transnational perspectives asking questions about how athletes and administrators transnational anti apartheid groups and activists and politicians around the world interpreted and internalized racial segregation in South Africa By connecting the local to the global this book illuminates the ways in which apartheid sport animated national and international debates ranging from racism and human rights to Cold War politics and post colonialism Sport and Apartheid South Africa is a significant new contribution to the study of race and politics in sport and will be a great resource for academics researchers and advanced students of History Politics International Relations Sociology and Political Geography The chapters in this book were originally published in The International Journal of the History of Sport Sabelo Ndlovu-Gatsheni and African Decolonial Studies Toyin Falola,2023-09-15 This book considers the work of the preeminent scholar on decoloniality Sabelo Ndlovu Gatsheni as a means of examining the development of decoloniality discourse and considering the future direction of the African knowledge economy Sabelo Ndlovu Gatsheni has been instrumental in the construction of theories and ideas necessary for advancing a decolonial system of education and epistemology This book considers how Professor Ndlovu Gatsheni s work has helped to shape our thinking both on Mugabe and the history of Zimbabwe and beyond to the broader questions of race liberation higher education and the future of decolonial studies Renowned author Professor Toyin Falola then invites us to consider the dangers of continued repression of African epistemologies and the enormous benefits of an alternative knowledge economy in which a diverse multiplicity of ideas drives our understanding of the world on to new heights Unpacking the various conceptual leanings of decoloniality through the works of one of its leading lights this book will be an essential read for researchers across the fields of African Studies Race Studies Philosophy and Education

Kenya and Britain after Independence Poppy Cullen,2017-06-30 This book explores British post colonial foreign policy towards Kenya from 1963 to 1980 It reveals the extent and nature of continued British government influence in Kenya after independence It argues that this was not simply about neo colonialism and Kenya s elite had substantial agency to shape the relationship The first section addresses how policy was made and the role of High Commissions and diplomacy It emphasises contingency with policy produced through shared interests and interaction with leading Kenyans It argues that British policy makers helped to create and then reinforced Kenya s neo patrimonialism The second part examines the economic military personal and diplomatic networks which successive British governments sustained with independent Kenya A combination of interlinked interests encouraged British officials to place a high value on this relationship even as their world commitments diminished This book appeals to those interested in Kenyan history post colonial Africa British foreign policy and forms of diplomacy and policy making The Winds of History Andreas Zeman,2023-10-24 Based on extensive archival research in six countries and intensive fieldwork the book analyzes the history of the village of Nkhlongue on the eastern Mozambican shores of Lake Malawi from the time of its formation in the 19th century to the present day The study uses Nkhlongue as a microhistorical lens to examine such diverse topics as the slave trade the spread of Islam colonization subsistence production counter insurgency decolonization civil war ecotourism and matriliney Thereby the book attempts to reflect as much as possible on the generalizability and global comparability of local findings by framing analyses in historiographical discussions that aim to go beyond the regional or national level Although the chapters of the book deal with very different topics they are united by a common interest in the social history of rural Africa in the longue dur e Contrary to persistent clich s of rural inertia in Africa the book as a whole underscores the profound changeability of social conditions and relations in Nkhlongue over the years and highlights how people s room for maneuver kept changing as a result of the Winds of History the frequent and often violent ruptures brought to the village from outside The Namibian War of Independence, 1966-1989 Richard Dale,2014-10-21 The decolonization of Namibia was delayed from 1966 to 1989 the period of the war of independence pitting the Namibian nationalists against the South African minority ruled regime This book describes the diplomatic economic and military campaigns of the Namibian and South African belligerents and draws a comparison with several other decolonization wars Using data from parliamentary debates the aftermath is examined of the Namibian war and the newly independent nation The book provides a basis for further investigation of the decolonization process African Independence Tukufu Zuberi,2015-08-01 African Independence highlights the important role Africa has played in recent history and the significant role it will continue to play in the future of America and the globe In a world where much of the power and wealth remains concentrated in the hands of a very few people this book looks at how the history of African independence has touched all people from refugees to heads of state Author Tukufu Zuberi weaves exclusive interview excerpts and stories from many Africans he has met with old newsreels current news and reports and research into a larger narrative that takes readers through key events in African history and shows their importance today The book provides context for understanding connections between events in Africa and the world such as Nigeria s Boko Haram acts of war against the citizens of Nigeria and neighboring states China s rise as the main superpower with the largest financial connections to the African continent and the so called war against terrorism Zuberi is also the director of the documentary African Independence which has won awards including Best Director and Best Documentary at the San Diego Black Film Festival Best Director at The People s Film Festival Best African Film at the San Diego Black Film Festival and more Both alone and together the book and film offer a deeper understanding of Africa s central role in world affairs
