Ibrahim Elbadawi

Arab Human Development Report 2004 Towards Freedom In The Arab World:

Arab Human Development in the Twenty-first Century Bahgat Korany, 2014 In addition to its emphasis on the primacy of change and dynamics rather than static snapshots this book looks critically at development studies and policies Originally prepared as the tenth anniversary volume of the UNDP's series of Arab Human Development Reports Arab Human Development in the Twenty first Century inventories existing knowledge to present an integrated and coherent report through the systematic application of its political economy framework It places empowerment at the centre of human development in the Arab world away from the dominant existing securocracy state The Arab Human Development Report, 2009 The Arab Human Development Report 2004 United Nations Development Programme. Regional Bureau for Arab States, Arab Fund for Economic and Social Development, 2005 This is the third in a series of development reports which focus on the Arab world based on the collective work of an independent group of scholars policymakers and practitioners in the region The 2004 report examines issues of freedom and human rights good governance and political reform within Arab societies considers the challenges and constraints involved in moves towards democratic reforms and sets out a broad strategic vision for future progress The report finds that despite some improvements in the human rights situation in some Arab countries the overall picture in the region is grave and deteriorating Key priorities for urgent action to reform governance practices are identified including the abolition of states of emergency by governments in the region ending all forms of discrimination against minority groups and guaranteeing the independence of the judiciary

Democracy in the Arab World Ibrahim Elbadawi, 2011 Despite notable socio economic development in the Arab region a deficit in democracy and political rights has continued to prevail This book examines the major reasons underlying the persistence of this democracy deficit over the past decades and touches on the prospects for deepening the process of democratization in the Arab World Contributions from major scholars in the region give a cross country analysis of economic development political institutions and social factors and the impact of oil wealth and regional wars and present a model for democracy in the Arab world Case studies are drawn from Algeria Egypt Iraq Jordan Lebanon Syria Sudan and the Gulf region building on these cross country analyses and probing beyond the model's main global variables Looking beyond the effect of oil and conflicts the chapters illustrate how specific socio political history of the country concerned fear of fundamentalist groups collusion with foreign powers and foreign interventions and the co-optation of the elites by the state contribute to these problems of democratization Situating the democratic position of the Arab World in a global context this book is an important contribution to the field of Middle Eastern politics development studies and studies on conflict and democracy The Real (Arab) World, 2005 An Introduction to Intercultural Communication Fred E. Jandt, 2012-02-02 Filled with thought provoking examples photos quotes cases and stories that spark students interest and challenge them to reconsider existing viewpoints the Seventh Edition of Fred Jandt's An Introduction to Intercultural Communication a
