Assessment 30 Throw Out Your Grade And Inspire Learning:

Assessment 3.0 Mark Barnes, 2015-01-28 Throw out gradebooks and meet the assessment system of the future Most educators take for granted that A through F grades are the best measure of learning But Mark Barnes s formula for feedback titled SE2R Summarize Explain Redirect Resubmit has delivered stunning results to the forward thinking schools that have tried it Now you can tap into the power of SE2R to supercharge student learning and accountability The method in this book will loosen and then break your classroom s dependence on traditional grading systems that do little more than silence student voices Delving into what really motivates students the book covers How GPA is a classic example of the tail wagging the dog Utilizing mobile devices and social networks to maximize the benefits of SE2R Addressing and overcoming bureaucratic resistance to change Real life case studies proving SE2R s viability Your greatest responsibility is to your students Don t wait another day to start dismantling the grading system that is currently failing them all Revolutionary Why Tossing out grades does not equate tossing out learning We spend a lot of time talking about data and growth In Assessment 3 0 Mark Barnes focuses on the revelation and growth of the Independent Learner our students This is a great read for any teacher or administrator Creed Anthony Teacher Writer of Your Parent Teacher Conference weekly column on LifeofDad com Mark Barnes is a leader and revolutionary voice in the movement to rid our educational system of an outdated assessment model In Assessment 3 0 he delivers a persuasive pitch that current grading practices are both poor reflections of learning and damaging to students Not only does he clearly define the problem he offers a powerful solution with his SE2R model and delivers a blueprint for implementation that can transform classrooms and schools Dave Burgess Educator Professional Development Speaker and Author of Teach Like a Pirate Barnes is bold insightful and right It is time to not only throw out your grade books but all the misinformation in your brains that supports the need for grades None of us became teachers so we could have color coded grade books We became educators to make a difference in the minds of our students This book shows us how Russell J Quaglia President Founder Quaglia Institute for Student Aspirations This text contains outstanding resources for communicating to stakeholders who care about how assessment systems can impact student behaviors and performances If you are interested in changing how students and teachers view traditional grading systems this book is a must read Assessment 3 0 can be a revolutionary tool D Allan Bruner National Board Certified Teacher Colton High School Colton OR Mark has done something important in writing this book He argues clearly and with hope for specific actionable change right now in our early 21st century classrooms Here s the potential here s the problem and here s a way forward This is a practical model for ed reform in general Terry Heick Director of TeachThought Nothing destroys a student s creativity and passion for learning as fast or as completely as grades Mark Barnes examines how that happens In Assessment 3 0 but he does much more than simply critique standard assessment tools which have remained virtually unchanged in America for over 100 years The veteran teacher guides readers through a fascinating investigation of how throwing out grades while embracing digitally enhanced independent learning fosters a superior learning environment one that also does a far better job of developing real world skills that prepare students to excel in the world of tomorrow This book has completely transformed how I approach teaching and I can't recommend it highly enough to anybody interested in the future not just of education but also our nation David Cutler National Association of Independent Schools Teacher of the Future contributor The Atlantic and Edutopia Student-Led Assessment Starr Sackstein,2024-01-03 The single greatest authority on student learning is the student doing the learning but the right structures must be in place for students voices to be clearly heard and truly valued Conventional formative and summative assessment are most often conducted through one size fits all quizzes and tests that yield narrow predetermined categories of data about students academic progress But if we want a truly accurate look at what how and to what extent students are learning who better to consult than the obvious experts on the matter the students themselves In this lively and comprehensive guide veteran teacher and author Starr Sackstein provides the tools needed to help students compile and present evidence of learning through portfolios and student led conferences from templates and rubrics to personal testimonials reflection questions and activities The book features Forms applicable across grade levels and content areas for unpacking standards co constructing success criteria with students evaluating current classroom practices and more Real life perspectives and scenarios from educators in the field who have embraced portfolios and student led conferences over standardized tests and letter grades Practical experience based guidance for building classroom and schoolwide learning cultures that promote both learner agency and academic achievement The resources recommendations and reflections in Student Led Assessment allow educators at all levels to develop systems and protocols for ensuring student ownership of and pride in their own hard won achievement Balance With Blended Learning Catlin R. Tucker,2020-01-09 Rethink the roles responsibilities and workflow in your blended learning classroom and enjoy balance in your life Blended learning offers educators the opportunity to reimagine teaching and learning It allows teachers to partner with their students to assess track and reflect on learning This partnership gives teachers more time and energy to innovate and personalize learning while providing students the opportunity to be active agents driving their own growth If one thing is certain after the 2019 2020 school year blended learning is here to stay Learning must be a shared endeavor between the teacher and the learner This book provides teachers with strategies to rethink traditional workflows to make teaching practices sustainable Written by blended learning expert Catlin Tucker this resource provides teachers with concrete strategies and resources they can use to partner with their students to actively engage them in setting goals monitoring their development reflecting on their growth using feedback to improve work assessing the quality of their work and communicating their progress with parents Balance With Blended Learning includes Practical strategies for teachers overwhelmed by their workloads Routines and protocols designed to move feedback and assessment into the classroom to eliminate much of the work teachers take home Ready to use templates and resources designed to help students take an active role in tracking monitoring and reflecting on their progress Vignettes written by teachers across disciplines Stories from the author s extensive experience both as a teacher and blended learning coach Redefining roles in a blended learning classroom encourages students to take ownership over their learning journeys and helps teachers feel more effective efficient and energized Beyond the Tyranny of Testing Kenneth J.
